

Millage passes At Willow Run

By JOANN VAN WYE
Of The Press Staff

"We've made it!" was the chant that echoed through the victory celebration at Edmonson Junior High School of the "Save Our Schools" Citizens Advisory Committee, Board of Education and administration of the Willow Run School District after learning that their millage proposal had passed last night.

The millage proposal for 17.5 mills — 14.5 for five years and 3 for 2 years — passed on its second attempt by almost 3 to 2. The unofficial results of the election are 1,239 "yes" and 886 "no."

Precinct 1, which included citizens in the Edmonson and Thurston School area, was the only precinct that voted against the proposal. Of the 696 votes cast at the Precinct, 337 were "yes" and 359 were "no."

The greatest improvement in the number of "yes" votes was in Precinct 2, which includes residents of the Ford and Holmes School area. There were 551 "yes" votes and 374 "no" votes cast at this precinct.

Of the 204 voters that turned out at Precinct 3 — the Kettering School area — 132 voted "yes" and 72 voted "no."

Citizens in the Kaiser School area passed the millage by almost 3 to 1. There were 219 "yes" votes and 81 "no" votes cast at this precinct.

There was a 1,000 per cent increase in voter turn-out from Woolman Oval and 100 per cent increase in voter turn-out from the Washington Square area.

Talk Resolves Problems

Board to take 'New approach'

After a lengthy talk with County Social Services Director Alfred Brose yesterday, Board of Supervisors Chairman Bent F. Nielsen today reported that communication problems between Brose and the supervisors have been resolved.

The supervisors will now take a "new approach" in their dealings with the Social Services Board, Nielsen said.

Previously, according to the board chairman, supervisors have dealt directly with Brose rather than with the Social Services Board — the group which Brose serves as administrator. This procedure was incorrect, Nielsen said, adding that "I think we've done him an injustice on this part."

Nielsen said that now the Board of Supervisors, through its health, education and welfare committee, will "put their complaints and criticisms in writing ... and take their business to the Social Services Board, as should be."

On Monday Nielsen had criticized Brose, an Ypsilanti resident, for his poor work performance noting that often problems existing between the Social Services agency and welfare clients are not adequately brought to the Board of Supervisors' attention.

At the time he saw Brose as the main cause.

Apologizing on the board's behalf for this "misunderstanding" today, Nielsen, however, nevertheless added that he and the Social Services Director still "don't see eye-to-eye on everything."

Houseboat set ablaze

A lone boatman watches the $300,000 luxury houseboat of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bowling of Honolulu go up in flames. The boat, a converted Coast Guard cutter, was set afire after it ran aground on a coral reef. Bowling said it would be too expensive to salvage. (AP Photo)

Bleeder Survives Operation

ANN ARBOR — A 27-year-old hemophiliac from Oregon survived an 11-hour operation Tuesday in which surgeons at the University of Michigan Hospital removed two connected tumors in his thigh and leg and pinned a fracture in his leg.

Hospital spokesmen said today the condition of David Jones of Portland, Ore., was unstable. Surgeons and specialists from the U-M Hemophilia Center were scheduled to confer on what further steps would be taken to help the 27-year-old patient.

Since the operation Jones received 40 pints of whole blood and approximately 500 ccs of anti-hemophiliac factor VIII, the hospital reported. Factor VIII makes the blood clot.

Jones was flown to Ann Arbor last April 11 by military transport. Residents in Portland raised $20,000 in contributions to pay for the trip.

Organized crime Target of Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon is making the organized underworld a prime target of his program aimed at eliminating what he once called "a great national disaster." the country's booming crime rate.

Nixon, whose initial outline of his anticrime effort was prepared for delivery to Congress today, hit hard during his presidential campaign on the issues of violence, illegal gambling and the organized crime's infiltration of legitimate business.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen and other congressional leaders, who previewed today's message, had said proposals for doubling the $25 million now spent to fight crime and the establishment of 20 federal field offices would be used, among other things to get at organized crime's use of gambling money to burrow into honest businesses.

Nixon's other proposals revealed in advance by Dirksen included plans to permit action against public officials dealing with gamblers and racketeers, the restoration of the Supreme Court-negated law requiring gamblers to register with the federal government and providing limited immunity to witnesses testifying against crime figures.

Today's message will be followed by other detailed explanations on narcotics, obscenity, "the rights of accused persons and, presumably, crime in the streets."

Viewing the results of last night's millage election are three happy Willow Run School District administrators (from left) Elkins L. Bruce, director of community relations, Edwin T. Gray, superintendent, and Thomas Krakker, administrative assistant to the superintendent. The millage was passed by 360 votes, almost a 3 to 2 margin. (Press Photo)

Nixon had proposed in his budget message last week the Justice Department get $16 million more in the next fiscal year than proposed by former President Johnson to boost its war on illegal operations, the only request he made for hiking a Johnson spending figure.

Nixon as a campaigner

There has been speculation the administration would request a modification of the Fifth Amendment protection against self-incrimination.

Mother of missing teen Appeals for assistance

Barbara Hagood, 15, a sophomore at Ypsilanti High School, has been missing since Monday morning, her mother told The Press today.

"She rode the school bus to school Monday," said Mrs. Jewell Hagood. "Some other girls said she met a girl from St. John's and was going to Ann Arbor."

"She told them that she would be back before school was out," she added.

Mrs. Hagood of 874 Auburndale Ave. said she reported her daughter's disappearance to the City Police, the Ann Arbor Police and the County Sheriff's office Monday evening.

"She was gone once before with the same girl, but just overnight," said the distraught mother. "I found her at the Michigan Union the next day."

The second girl has not been reported missing, according to police.

Mrs. Hagood said that the previous disappearance was about two months ago.

and weighs 185 pounds. She has light brown hair which she wears short in the back but down near her eyes in front. She has grey eyes and has dark-rimmed glasses which her mother said "she wears all the time."

At the time of her disappearance, she had on a brown skirt and was wearing a dark blue windbreaker. She was carrying a brown purse.

The mother said that she found out later that Barbara had taken a pair of white bell-bottom slacks with dark blue pinstripes with her.

"She's probably in the company of the other girl and she's probably in the campus area in Ann Arbor," said Mrs. Hagood.

If anyone has any information leading to the whereabouts of the girls, the City Police should be called.

"Barbara, please call home," pleaded Mrs. Hagood.

Police dog put on case

Leads being sifted through in five murders probe

By JOHN COBB
Of The Press Staff

A trained police dog has been brought to Washtenaw County to aid police in their investigation of five murders. Sheriff Douglas Harvey late yesterday disclosed that a new crime detecting "device" had been brought in.

Undersheriff Harold J. Owings this morning said that a report circulated that the "device" was a team of trained bloodhounds was in error. In fact, he said, police brought in a trained police dog from Pennsylvania yesterday to aid in their investigation.

The animal is privately owned and has played a key role in the apprehension of eight murderers throughout the nation. The dog was used yesterday and possibly will be used later this week in an effort to help police uncover more clues in the death last week of Dawn Basom.

In other developments, police said that one of many leads being checked is a name which has been brought into all the investigations. Police today said that the lead was checked and nothing substantial found.

Reports that police were looking for a "couple" as suspects in the case was discounted this morning by Undersheriff Owings, who said it was a misinterpretation made by several reporters from Detroit.

Earlier officials had said they were looking for "a couple of suspects" and it was mistaken to mean "a couple suspects."

Police officials from the University of Wisconsin were reported to be in the Ann Arbor-Ypsilanti area today to check similarities with the death of a coed there last year. Ralph Hanson, chief of the Wisconsin campus police, was reported to be in the area to check with police later today.

"Many of my detectives are working 20 hours-a-day" explained Sheriff Douglas J. Harvey, as all members of the 70-man department are checking out all clues in the latest murder.

Police have indicated that leads are getting "hotter" in the investigation following the death a week ago of Dawn Basom, a 13-year-old eighth-grader from Ypsilanti. Hundreds of clues and tips have been checked by investigators from five different departments but no arrests have been made.

Leaves and vacations have been canceled for the moment for police who are working around-the-clock in the hopes of uncovering some clue which might link all the other information together and complete the puzzle.

Several people have called police to talk about the murders or to "confess" to one or more of the brutal crimes but these have been discounted generally due to the intoxicated "condition or mental attitude of the persons involved. False confessions in crimes of this nature are not unusual and are given generally by persons wanting attention.

Patrols have been increased in the rural areas with deputies and State Police checking out all cars found parked in rural Washtenaw County "lovers' lanes." All the dead girls have been found in such areas and police want to prevent a recurrence of the past 22 months.

Rumors are flying hot and heavy from various areas of the county reporting persons being taken into custody by police for the murder of Dawn Basom. Harvey has repeatedly denied that anyone has been arrested for any of the crimes.

Many times, police added, the persons are being taken into custody on a warrant for some unrelated crime or just being questioned by police — a routine procedure.

Milan youth dies In auto mishap

A Milan youth was killed and three other persons injured at 10:40 p.m. Tuesday when their car failed to negotiate a curve on Dennison Rd., 100 feet north of Hack Rd. in York Township.

Roger D. Canine, 18, of 12150 Wabash St., Milan, was dead on arrival at an Ann Arbor hospital of head injuries. He was a passenger in a car operated by Thomas H. Paddock, 20, of 481 Argyle St., Milan. Paddock received bruises in the crash.

Two other occupants of the car also received bruises. Jack W. Collar, 18, of 224 E. Michigan Ave., Milan, and Michael D. Clark, 19, of 10130 Azalia Rd., Azalia, were treated at the hospital.

Sheriff's deputies said the Paddock car was southbound on Dennison Rd. at about 70 miles per hour when it failed to negotiate a curve.

It skidded and rolled over several times for a distance of 383 feet before striking a pump house. It then continued on for another 100 feet before come to rest next to a house.

The death is the 16th to be recorded on county highways as compared to 15 last year at this time.

First on record:

Entire human eye transplanted

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A total human eye transplant, the first on record, has been performed at Methodist hospital.

John Madden, 54, received the eye from the body of O. B. Hickman, 55, of Houston, who had died 24 hours earlier of a brain tumor.

Dr. Conrad D. Moore, who performed the transplant, said Tuesday Madden, owner of a photography studio at Conroe, Tex., was in excellent condition. Moore added it was too early to tell whether the patient would be able to see with the eye.

"The operation is simple but the problem is keeping the optic nerve cells alive," said Moore.

"Even with a perfected procedure it could be used only with the loss of a whole eye, such as in an accident," he said. "The type case we had here might happen once in a thousand times."

Madden lost his right eye two weeks ago when a corneal transplant was unsuccessful because of bleeding. He was still hospitalized when the donor eye became available.

Despite loss of the eye, Moore said, it was found that the nerve essential to vision had not been destroyed. This led to the transplant in which the nerves of the donor eye were connected surgically with the Madden's optic nerves.

"We now just have to wait and see what happens," Moore said. "We are hopeful the nerves will unite. But even if the vision doesn't work he will have a normal looking eye."

Moore said the Madden's eyelids would remain sewn together for about three weeks before it could be determined whether he had vision in the eye.

Madden's left eye also has corneal damage but Moore said this probably could be corrected by a corneal transplant.

Eye transplant recipients, unlike heart recipients, face few organ rejection problems because the eye does not have as many exposed blood vessels, Moore said.

Surgeons have performed successful total eye transplants on animals.

Moore is an assistant professor of ophthalmology at Baylor College of Medicine. He was named recently as assistant director of the Institute of Ophthalmology in the Texas Medical Center.

Dr. Alden N. Haffer, director of the Ophthalmic Center of New York, commented:

"This would be the miracle of the day. To my knowledge there has never been this type of operation—that is, the attachment of the entire organ."

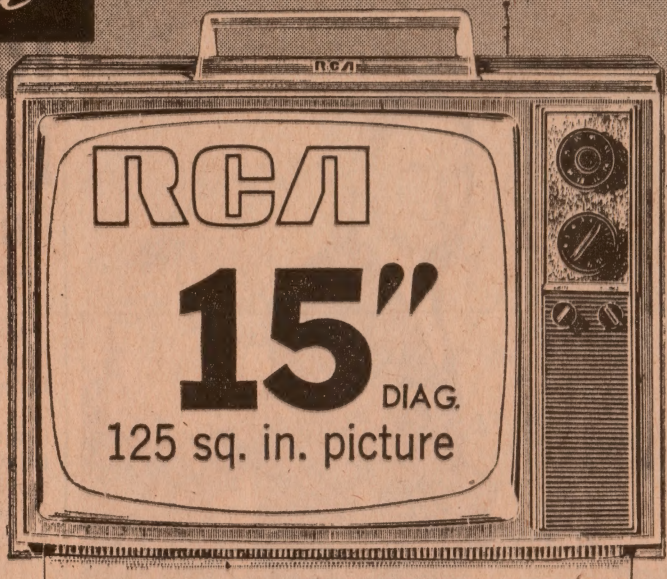

"This would be an accomplishment of first rate scientific merit."

Van Buren tables request

By TIM HAYES
Of The Press Staff

BELLEVILLE — The Van Buren Township Board tabled a Detroit Edison request for a franchise at its meeting last night but indications were that the franchise will be approved soon.

Trustees said that Edison appeared to meet township franchise requirements, but they wanted to hold off on approval until an attorney could check the working of the agreement. The Van Buren Township attorney is the Detroit firm of Barry, Hopson, Francis and Mack.

The board also heard a progress report on the second phase of the sewer project, which is being conducted in the northeast quarter of the township.

A little over $300,000 of the sewer work has been completed. Engineers have been checking on sewer depths in the area in order to get the proper slope for drainage.

A resolution which had been adopted by the Inkster City Council opposing a bill now in the legislature for the legalization and lessening of penalties for marijuana was read. The board agreed to file the letter and check with legislators for further information on the exact nature of the bill.

"I think there's no greater crime on earth than peddling narcotics and dope," said Trustee Joseph Hogan, "but I think we need to know more about it before we act."

Another communication was received from the Lincoln Park City Council complaining that state-owned liquor stores didn't have to pay taxes. Lincoln Park said that it had the largest state liquor store in Michigan and was losing about $70,000 a year in taxes.

Following the recommendation of insurance consultant Henry Matulaewicz, the board voted to award it workman's compensation policy to Sentry Insurance Co.

Police chief reveals Activity for month

SALINE — Police Chief James L. Levleit's report to council this week showed that during March, City Police officers worked at total of 2,085 hours and 25 minutes in man hours.

While conducting regular patrol duties, officers assisted 85 persons and/or vehicles with gasoline, repairs, or other assistance, made 124 investigations of suspicious persons and/or vehicles, made 2,254 property inspections, 7 liquor inspections, issued 109 verbal warnings for minor traffic violations and investigated 504 original complaints, 70 supplementary investigations on other department complaints for a total of 592 investigations.

The dispatchers handled a total of 2,387 messages and disposed of 7 city and 29 township fire calls, issued nine burn permits and handled 17 information calls.

Police traveled 11,058 miles while conducting their patrol and investigative activities and used 1,258 gallons of gasoline. Stolen and Property loss reported totaled $1,610.14 and recovered property reported totaled $1,451.14.

Motor vehicle accidents investigated totaled 16 for March. There were a total of 589 arrests, with 13 juvenile apprehensions.

The Auxiliary Police worked a total of 53 hours in assisting the regular officers during the month.

Two programs were presented during the month, one at the Houghton Elementary School and one at the Lutheran Church, dealing with Brecon, Wales, Saline's sister city.

Dump area Restricted In Saline

SALINE — The City Planning Commission took action last night on the area east of Monroe St. near the sewage treatment plant. The area has been designated as a fill area to allow dumping of city-owned building materials only with written permission of the city administrator.

The only items to be dumped will be concrete, tile, brick, mortar, rock, gravel, black top, ashes, approved sludge from the disposal plant and other solid building materials. At such time the fill reaches grade level, it shall be covered with dirt and smoothed over.

Also, the existing gravel pit area at the back of the park where the turn-around and ball diamond is, has been designated as an area for the city to dump sand and dirt with small pieces of asphalt to a grade that will allow leveling of the area for parking by Aug. 31.

The area was also designated to store and burn trees, limbs and brush cut by the city. Reasons for the action, according to City Administrator Mike Strait, is because the city is at a point where it has no other place to burn or dump trees within the city. The burning and dumping would be done in a section of the area so as not to obstruct parking or turning around and would be done at a chosen time when it would not affect park users.

Pittsfield proposes Committee with AA

By WARREN EDWARDS
Of The Press Staff

The Pittsfield Township Board, faced by further nibbling by the City of Ann Arbor, last night worked to clean up the township and stave off further inroads. The township earlier this month lost 600 acres and $2.6 million in tax base to Ann Arbor through an annexation election.

The board last night agreed to seek negotiations with Ann Arbor to find out what that city wants and to set up a joint planning commission.

Action on a better looking township came on a plea by Jack Nielsen, head of the Township Planning Commission.

Nielsen urged that teeth be put into a township ordinance, saying that apparently there was no way to enforce the present law. He said he could cite a dozen violations of the law along Carpenter, Washtenaw and Packard Rds.

In response, the board called a special meeting for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, at which time board members will sit down with the planning commission, the township attorney and the building inspector to consider all the township's problems.

The water and sewer department reported operating expenses last year of $42,000 with total receipts of $143,000. Any profits have been put in time deposit to be used for the building of additional sewers, Morgan said.

In other complaints: An apartment complex was accused of violating building permits.

A drive-in theater was accused of being a dumping ground for rubbish and it was reported that there was even a bulldozer there for that purpose. The supervisor was told to investigate ways to stop the operation.

One resident complained of junk cars along Merritt Rd. and said it was so bad that his neighbor couldn't get a bank loan.

Trustee William Pearlman demanded and got resolutions to contact the County Road Commission about the drainage on Torrey St. and closing the curb cutoff at the Village Green Apartments.

The board was so busy discussing old and new problems, future meetings, and a dispute over the wording of the minutes of past meetings that it never got around to passage of the long-delayed ordinance over the control of weeds.

Appeal made For helpers

A call went out today for volunteers to help in the Ypsilanti area "Tag Day" to aid cancer victims and research into the disease.

Tag Day, an appeal for funds, will be from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday and Saturday.

Volunteers have been requested to report to the Huron Motor Inn to register their names and the location where they would like to work.

After their tour of duty they are being asked to report back to the Inn to have their receipts tabulated.

Features local group:

Gospel concert slated

By DOROTHY LASKEY
Of The Press Staff

Groups with something to say and something to sing about will be featured in a gospel concert Sunday at 3:30 p.m. in the Ypsilanti High School Auditorium.

The gospel concert, a "first-time activity" for Ypsilanti, will also mark the hometown concert debut of a local quintet called the Ecclesiastics.

Members of the Ecclesiastics, who have been singing together since November, came to the group with varied professional backgrounds.

Mrs. Levi Simpson sang in the rock 'n' roll field under the name "Shirley Jackson." She has formal musical training and group manager, Mrs. Charles Brown, said Shirley is an excellent pianist. Male members of the quintet have all done singing in rock groups. Mrs. Howard West has been singing for about 15 years. Mrs. Brown said she will sing only gospel.

For Sunday's concert Emmett North will be the accompanist. Harvey Hill, blind blues artist out of Chicago, had been the regular guitarist for the Ecclesiastics.

Mrs. Brown, who sees today's "gospel folk" as the upcoming trend in music, said that the music catches the mood of society itself. She said she feels it is significant that teens are forming gospel folk groups.

"Listen to your radios," Mrs. Brown said in indicating that gospel sounds are current climbers.

Mrs. Brown said members of the Ecclesiastics turned from the rock field to gospel to further their own convictions. She said, "Our whole

'bag' in this is getting the blacks and whites to act together."

The manager said the name "Ecclesiastics" was chosen from the Bible because it signifies the preacher — the man who has something to say.

Mrs. Brown said the group has tentative plans for radio work and recording dates. She said the group has been approached by Motown and Savoy records.

The group has performed in Detroit and in area churches as well as filling radio dates. They anticipate a record release near mid-June.

The Ecclesiastics are accompanied by guitar and clavichord. Mrs. Brown said she believes the group is the only one which uses the clavichord and gets the unique harpsichord-like sound.

The instrument was on special order from Germany before it was acquired by the singers.

Appearing at the gospel concert will be another Ypsilanti group called the Embassy Quartet. Four groups from Detroit and a group from Monroe will round out the program.

The "Dynamic Sensation" from Detroit have been called the "Temptations of the Gospel World" said Mrs. Brown. The other groups are: "Sons of Zion," "Shackelford Singers," and "Joy Harmonizers." The "Rance Allen Singers" are from Monroe.

For 1969-70 season:

Luboff bonus in series

An opportunity to hear the internationally-famed Norman Luboff Choir Monday night is the bonus offered by the Ypsilanti Community Concert Association for new members joining this week.

Persons interested in obtaining membership for the 1969-70 association concert season can sign up at the group's headquarters in the Huron Motor Inn lobby.

Membership for the upcoming season — to include four concert offerings — is $10 for adults and $5 for students.

The headquarters will be open until 9 p.m. and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. through Friday. This week is the final chance to join the concert group, unless memberships are still available next fall.

The Luboff performance is the last concert scheduled for the association's 1968-69 season. Like all community concert presentations, the choir will appear in Eastern Michigan University's Pease Auditorium at 8 p.m.

Two performances have been definitely scheduled for next season: the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and "folk-classical" singers Steve Addis and Bill Crofut.

Conducted by Sixten Ehrling, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will perform Sunday afternoon, Oct. 12. Addis & Crofut, as the balladeers are billed, are tentatively set for an early February date.

Addis & Crofut play a half-dozen musical instruments ranging from the American banjo to the Japanese samisen. The duo also has a repertoire that includes songs from 32 different languages.

Performing on nightclub and concert circuits throughout the world, the young songsters have recorded on the Columbia label.

Further information about the Ypsilanti Community Concert's spring membership drive may be obtained by calling 483-2883.

Members of the Ypsilanti Historical Society are busy assembling material for their "Ypsilanti Grows with Michigan" display at the Business and Professional Women's Club annual antique show Friday, Saturday and Sunday in the Ypsilanti Armory at 1025 S. Huron St.

The exhibit will be based on the Robert Thoms series of pictures showing life in Michigan from prehistoric to present times.

The fascination of old maps will be utilized to present the local parallel in advancement from Indian days and modern industry will be shown in pictures on loan from the Ypsilanti Chamber of Commerce.

Two large hand drawn birds-eye views, dated in 1865 and 1890, will be placed where visitors can study them. Along the front of the stage the colorful Michigan scenes will be shown in conjunction with pictures of early educational, industrial, business and municipal progress.

Included in the map display will be copies of the original plat of Ypsilanti, a plat of Ypsilanti Township which shows the names and holdings of early families, the layout of Willow Run Village during the Bomber days and an 1856 map of Ypsilanti.

Pictures will include three etchings illustrating Ypsilanti's early interest in education. They are of Cleary College, the former State Normal College administration building showing the tower for which townspeople paid and Union High School, predecessor of Ypsilanti High School. The first brick school in Ypsilanti, which was north of the present Woodruff School and the second Normal building, will be shown in photographs.

The water tower, as it appeared in 1893 when the city completed an extensive water works installation, will be included as will an early volunteer fire department, the Cornwell.

Available to illustrate cultural life here in the 19th century are pictures of a cornet band and the minuet club. Business and industry pictures provide many selections to illustrate life in the past. These include Yost Livery and Feed, Lamb Grocery Store, Boston Poultry House, the O. E. Thompson building as it looked in 1891, the Ypsilanti Underwear Mills, the Owens Mineral Wells, and the beginnings of the Bomber plant, now the General Motors complex.

Early transportation is shown in pictures of steam and electric cars and in an 1899 view of the iron bridge on Congress St., now Michigan Ave. At that time there was a $10 fine for going faster than a walk over the bridge.

Churches are represented in a picture of the First Methodist Church.

Other interesting views which are being assembled are of a 1910 automobile, beautiful gardens which were located at the depot, Michigan Ave. as it looked in 1875, early settlers who helped shape the city, the Alley Festa of 1918 and the Centennial Celebration of 1923.

'Mere gossip, hearsay'— That's what this rumor is

One of the long-established practices in newspapering is not to report unfounded rumors, for in so doing the rumor is thus spread. But there are exceptions to every rule, and this is a case in point.

Consider these definitions of "rumor":

"General talk not based on definite knowledge; mere gossip; hearsay."

"An unconfirmed report, story or statement in general circulation."

"Rumor: ... one who spreads rumors."

The rumor we refer to purportedly involved the wounding of a young boy in the restroom of two major area stores.

THE RUMOR IS JUST THAT — IT DID NOT HAPPEN.

This case shows just how fast a rumor — "gossip, hearsay" — can spread and how dangerous and damaging it can be. In general it is exactly the same rumor that made the rounds about four years ago — and that incident also did not happen.

Weeks ago The Press checked out the rumor and found it to be "COMPLETELY FALSE. But it has grown to such widespread proportions we feel it is now a necessity to publicly state it DID NOT happen.

Police, hospitals and The Press have been swamped with phone calls and queries on why the "story" was never made public. The answer? Simply because it did not happen!

Likewise, one store cited in the rumor has had its share of calls and complaints and reports business "way down" solely because of the "gossip".

During World War II posters were put up around the nation advising against spreading rumors, for national security. One of the more famous was "A slip of the lip could sink a ship".

This is a case in point, demonstrating just how gullible the public actually is. People willingly accept a rumor as fact and then quickly pass it on, with a few sordid embellishments. This rumor reached the point where a church on Sunday reportedly held a special prayer for the injured boy and his parents.

A local attorney says he has hired a private investigator to check out the "story".

Don't be a rumor. The next "straight scoop" you hear, be sure it's fact and not fancy — "mere gossip, hearsay" — before you pass it on.

Nations have been tumbled by less, and the world and local scene today have enough problems without rumors.

Griffin presses for action On 3-mile limit confusion

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and JOHN A. GOLDSMITH

WASHINGTON — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, which has been cutting itself a televised slice of all the most popular controversies, appears to have no time for such mundane matters as revision of the 3-mile territorial waters claimed by the United States.

That question is right in the committee's lap, however, and it has been there for more than a year. So far, committee members have taken no action on a pending proposal which would require reciprocal territorial claims by the United States.

Sen. Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich.) first offered that proposal early last year in the wake of the seizure of the Navy's Pueblo. It died in the Foreign Relations Committee with the end of the last Congress. Griffin reoffered his proposal last month, and the measure now has 33 co-sponsors.

As reoffered, it would continue the 3-mile U.S. territorial limit for the record. It would require, however, that the United States assert equal offshore claims against the ships of nations which claim broader territorial limits.

In addition, and perhaps more importantly, the Griffin resolution would urge the President to take the lead, in the United Nations and elsewhere, toward establishing a universally recognized seaward boundary for maritime nations.

Ironically, the question of territorial limits has been deeply involved in many of the controversies which have engaged the Foreign Relations Committee in recent years. Long before the Pueblo seizure it was a factor in the 1964 Tonkin Gulf attacks which were investigated by the committee last year.

ALLEN

The question of seaward boundaries is, of course, central to the dispute with Peru over fishing rights, which is now under the committee's scrutiny. It is spectacularly involved in the recent downing of a Navy intelligence plane by North Korea.

Yet the tough question of appropriate territorial limits has not been addressed by the committee. Nor has Chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) made any plans for considering it.

Only 29 of the 98 nations which have a coastline now observe the 3-mile limit still asserted by the U.S. The others claim wider territorial seas, and the 12-mile limit, as asserted by Russia, is the most popular.

The position of the United States is a bit confusing, too. While it claims sovereign jurisdiction over the traditional 3 miles of coastal waters, the United States claims exclusive rights in waters extending 9 miles further seaward.

Griffin contends, in addition, that nothing much besides tradition supports the 3-mile claim of the United States. It is not, he argues, a declared or customary rule of international law.

In 1958 and 1960 the question of coastal boundaries was discussed in international conferences in Geneva. No agreement was reached, but there was something of a consensus that territorial limits should not extend further than 12 miles. There has been follow-up on those fruitless conferences.

The problem is, admittedly, not an easy one. One of the troublesome issues involved is the status of various straits and narrows under an internationally accepted territorial limit. Such issues would not appear to be unsolvable, however.

Arguing for a "tit-for-tat" assertion of territorial limits by the United States, Griffin calls the present situation "an open invitation to espionage — a giveaway intelligence advantage for our adversaries."

He notes that 30 trawler-type Soviet intelligence vessels can penetrate to within 3 miles of U.S. naval bases, while U.S. ships and planes observe the broader territorial limits of other nations — limits which run as high as 200 miles for some nations in Latin America.

Up to now Griffin has not publicly prodded the Foreign Relations Committee for action, though Fulbright assured him last year that the committee would take testimony on the matter. Griffin has indicated that he wants to give the committee an opportunity to proceed in an orderly fashion.

A number of committee members — including Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield — are co-sponsors of the Griffin proposal, and their good offices will be solicited in an effort to get the committee to act.

Griffin is not without recourse, however, if the Foreign Relations Committee continues to drag its feet. He can, for example, offer his proposal as an amendment to other committee bills when they reach the Senate floor.

New study shows How Air Force Power endangered

By Paul A.
Scott

Special
Press
Writer

WASHINGTON — Defense Secretary Melvin Laird's order for an over-all review of defense policy and manpower needs was triggered by a confidential Air Force study showing the near disastrous effect past administration policies have had on the world-wide capability of the Air Force.

Completed in March by the Air Force's Headquarters Logistics Command at Wright-Patterson Base in Dayton, Ohio, the massive 337-page study reveals that the Johnson Administration's diversion of Air Force funds, manpower and planes to Vietnam has left hundreds of B-52 strategic bombers, grounded for lack of maintenance and repairs.

The bombshell, which already has rocked the top echelons of the Pentagon, is now sending shock waves throughout the Nixon Administration and Congress because of its vast implications for the security of this country during the 1970s.

The document, prepared under the direction of Brig. General R. E. Hails, assistant deputy chief of staff maintenance engineering, strongly implies that past policies imposed on the Air Force by the Johnson and Kennedy Administrations have left it with a "maintenance crisis."

While no mention is made of the more than 3,500 aircraft and helicopters lost in the Vietnam war in the past four years, the study cites hundreds of examples of how the lack of funds and personnel has left aircraft inoperable and unsafe or unable to perform their missions.

The study charges that manpower ceilings and base closings "have eroded the organic maintenance industrial base of the Air Force" at a time when the facilities should have been built up to support military operations in Vietnam.

Because of these past policies of Secretaries Robert McNamara and Clark Clifford, the study points out, the Air Force in recent years has lost 14,000 — or nearly one fifth — of its highly qualified civilian maintenance personnel who have never been replaced.

In addition to these manpower losses, hundreds of millions of dollars of Air Force materials, including highly vulnerable electronics gear, is now being stored in the open due to the lack of facilities.

For example, at the USAF's Warner Robins Air Material Base near Macon, Ga., the Air Force inspector general's office discovered $155 million in sensitive electronics gear stored in the open and vulnerable to weather damage.

This costly story is repeated at numerous other bases, according to the study, since vital aircraft repair parts were moved to these installations after other bases were closed.

The Air Force's "maintenance crisis" is expected to make headlines when Sen. John McClellan's Permanent Investigating Subcommittee reopens its hearings on the ill-fated TFX (now FB-111) aircraft project next month.

In recent weeks, McClellan's investigators have traced many of the Air Force's maintenance problems to McNamara's policies of overruling the military on the development of weapons systems and Vietnam war policies.

McClellan's probes are now reviewing the Air Force study to determine the effect that McNamara's TFX decision had in creating the service's crisis.

McNamara envisioned that the all-service, multi-billion-dollar TFX would gradually replace all other existing aircraft and on this assumption he started to phase out a large number of this nation's air material depots or maintenance centers.

Prior to the McNamara cutbacks, there were nine such bases and each served as a central headquarters for the maintenance and repair of a specific kind of plane in services throughout the world.

Presently, there are only five maintenance centers — those in Rome, N.Y., San Bernardino, Calif., Middletown, Pa., and Mobile, Ala., having been closed or are in the process of being phased out.

Due to the failure of McNamara's all-service "dream plane," the Air Force and Navy have had to depend solely on existing aircraft, some of which should long ago have been shelved.

As the air fleet grows older, the demands for maintenance have increased sharply but, because of McNamara's cutbacks, nearly 50 per cent of maintenance centers have been closed.

According to the Air Force study, McNamara's policy of forcing the Air Force to farm out part of its maintenance work to private contractors has created more problems than it has solved.

"In addition to threatening our USAF operational capability," the study states, "these policies have also caused our failure to meet international commitment under the military assistance grant aid and foreign military sales program."

The lean EC-121 reconnaissance plane, shot down over the Sea of Japan by two North Korean MIGs, cost $2,750,000. The plane can fly more than 24 hours without refueling. Teams of men inside eavesdrop on Russian and Chinese as well as North Korean radio waves.

The EC-121 planes, which are operated by the Navy, are under the direction of the National Security Agency. In the Far East, their main base of operation is Atsugi Naval Air Station, Japan.

Census questions protest backed Why wasn't Old barn razed?

TO THE EDITOR:

I wrote a letter to Congressman Betts in Washington, D.C. in support of census reform. I received a reply.

The hearings are already being conducted. Each citizen who is interested in the reform bill should write immediately to the chairman of the two subcommittees. A specific request that your letter be included in the official hearings should be contained in this letter to each chairman.

The plans for the 1970 census are essentially final and 62 million forms will be sent to every household in America. There are 67 subjects and some 120 questions, all mandatory with a refusal to answer any one bringing a citizen to face criminal penalties of a $100 fine, 60 days in jail or both.

On June 19, 1967, Mr. Betts introduced a bill limiting the mandatory questions to subjects essential to making a count of the people. All other subjects would remain on the form, but no criminal penalties would attach to persons refusing to answer one or more of these questions.

Personal privacy is invaded when facts are extracted from an individual against his will.

The Census Bureau is a totally statistical-user-oriented agency. They contend they serve the public from whom billions of statistics are extracted, but in reality, the public is exploited for greedy factfinders in government and private business.

Congress faces not only this issue of assuring personal privacy for our countrymen, but also to see that a successful census is designed and implemented.

If laws are not made to stop the Census Bureau, we may be answering more questions each year. This is the time for citizens to write and be counted.

Send communications to the chairman of the two subcommittees hearing the census problem. They are:

Hon. Charles Wilson, Chairman Subcommittee on Census and Statistics House Office Building Washington, D.C.

Hon. Sam Ervin, Chairman Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights Senate Office Building Washington, D.C.

North Ireland Leader to quit?

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Prime Minister Terence O'Neill faced a showdown today over his desperate attempt to appease Northern Ireland's Roman Catholic minority. Meanwhile rioting continued in Belfast.

O'Neill threatened to resign unless his ruling Unionist party, which is predominantly Protestant, backed his about-face espousal of the principle of "one man, one vote" in local elections.

Universal suffrage has been the main demand of Catholic civil rights demonstrators, but the concession is certain to further inflame Protestant extremists, who accuse the Catholics of trying to take Northern Ireland out of the United Kingdom and join it to the Irish Republic.

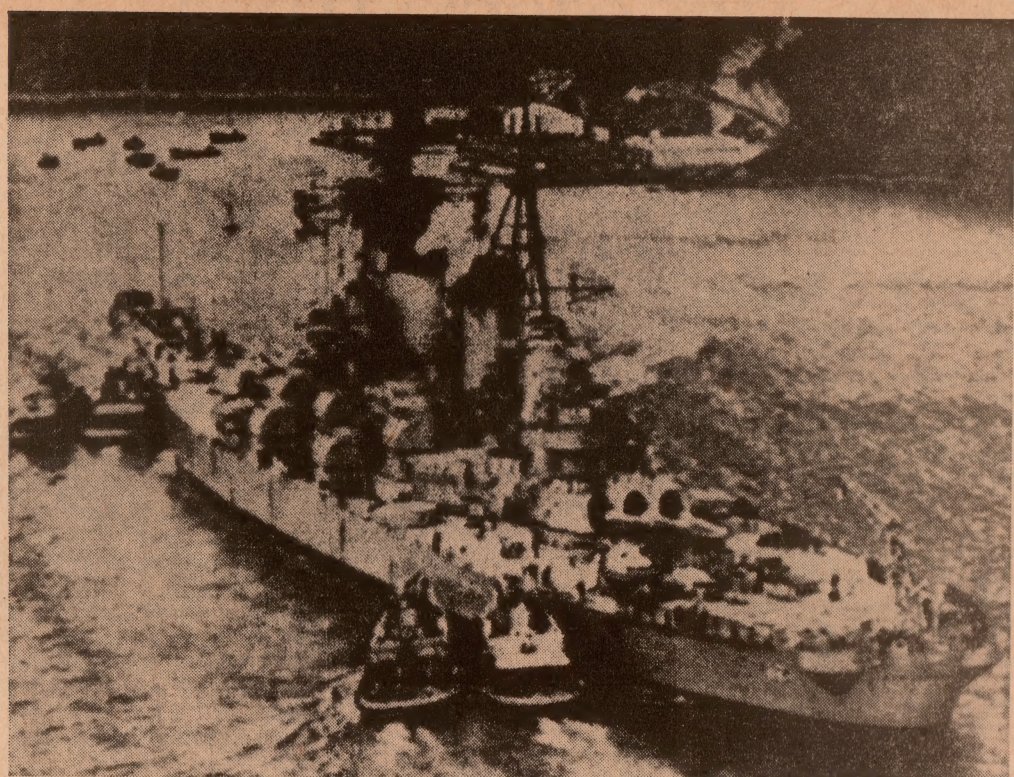

Police with night sticks repeatedly charged a mob of Protestant extremists, who stoned shops and buses in a Catholic district of Belfast Tuesday night. The rioters met the police with a hail of rocks, chunks of steel and firebombs.

No casualty figures were announced.

O'Neill's "one man, one vote" call was a political somersault made under pressure from British Prime Minister Harold Wilson. In the past he had refused to change the existing voting system, under which only property owners and householders can vote in local elections. This favors the Protestants in some predominantly Catholic areas.

Universal suffrage is already the rule in parliamentary elections. The Catholics, who number about a third of Northern Ireland's 1.5 million people, claim they also are discriminated against in housing and jobs.

Cong troops Withdraw

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command today announced the loss of six helicopters, including a fiery midair collision that killed 16 American and South Vietnamese soldiers and left no survivors.

The other crashes killed three Americans and wounded three U.S. soldiers and 20 South Vietnamese.

The collision occurred about 1 a.m. today 35 miles north of Saigon between two U.S. Army choppers carrying South Vietnamese infantrymen on a night assault. Eight American crewmen and eight South Vietnamese soldiers were killed when the helicopters plunged to the ground in flames.

U.S. headquarters said the cause of the crash is being investigated.

Three other helicopters were lost to enemy fire within an eight-hour period Tuesday two miles below the eastern flank of the demilitarized zone.

First a big U.S. Marine CH46 helicopter landing South Vietnamese infantrymen on a hilltop crashed, apparently hit an enemy land mine and exploded. Two American crewmen were killed and three crewmen and 14 South Vietnamese infantrymen were wounded.

All the dead and wounded were lifted out by another helicopter except a South Vietnamese company commander and his radio operator, who apparently were overlooked. A smaller helicopter that came to pick them up 4½ hours later also hit a mine while landing. One U.S. crewman was killed and three South Vietnamese soldiers were wounded.

A third helicopter from the 101st Airborne Division came in to help, and ground fire from the slopes of the same hill brought it down. There were no American casualties, but three South Vietnamese troops were wounded.

Another helicopter managed to lift out the survivors and the dead, field reports said.

The sixth helicopter lost, a light observation craft, was hit by enemy ground fire and crashed while on a reconnaissance mission 60 miles west of Saigon. It was destroyed but nobody was hurt.

The losses raised to 2,549 the number of American helicopters lost in the Vietnam war.

Elsewhere, the U.S. Command reported allied forces backed by helicopter gunships and bombers killed 55 North Vietnamese soldiers in the past 24 hours in the central highlands, 180 miles north of Saigon. There were no allied casualties, it said.

Military sources reported that the only three North Vietnamese battalions threatening Saigon from the south and west — more than 1,000 men — have pulled back into the marshy Plain of Reeds or across the Cambodian border.

Israelis Disclaim War state

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israeli diplomats said today the ceasefire along the Suez Canal has not broken down despite Secretary-General U Thant's warning that a "virtual state of active war" exists in the area.

The diplomats said Thant had failed to take into consideration reports from U.N. military observers that Egypt had initiated most of the recent fighting along the 103-mile waterway. They claimed that Cairo is attempting to create a war scare in order to pressure the Big Four powers in a pro-Arab plan of settlement for the Middle East crisis.

Some diplomats at the United Nations in New York said the recurrent fighting might indeed be prodding the Big Four to greater effort. They added that the alarmist tone of Thant's report left him open to charges that he was agreeing with the contention by Egypt and Jordan that war is inevitable unless the Big Four force Israel into a settlement acceptable to the Arabs. Israel, which opposes outside intervention, denies that there is danger of war.

Thant in a special report to the U.N. Security Council said the council's cease-fire resolutions had "become almost totally ineffective" through 12 straight days of fighting along the canal. But the council president for April, Maj. Gen. Padma Bahadur of Nepal, polled the other council members, and they decided not to hold a special meeting on the report.

The U.S. State Department, associating itself with Thant's report, called on Israel and the Arab states to "take effective measures" to maintain the cease-fire and "avoid all actions which aggravate the tense situation."

Israelis today continued their celebration of the 21st anniversary of the Jewish state's formation following a day of fighting on three fronts.

MISS L. ALESSANDRINI

MISS CONSTANCE RAINE

MISS LINDA PATRICK

Springtime bringing Ypsilanti betrothals

April showers are bringing May flowers and a healthy crop of engagements. That hardy-annual June "Wedding Bells" should have a spectacular season if early betrothal "buds" blossom.

The following Ypsilanti area engagements were announced this week:

Alessandrini-Anderson

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Alessandrini of 2029 McCartney St. announce the engagement of their daughter, Lavonne Marie, to Alfred Anderson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Anderson, Sr., of 1365 DeSoto Ave.

The bride-to-be, a Belleville High School alumna, is a recent graduate of Carnegie Institute in Detroit. She is presently employed by Dr. Paul B. Solway, an Ypsilanti optometrist.

The prospective groom is a student at Washtenaw Community College and is employed by the Ypsilanti Post Office. He also is a graduate of Belleville High School.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Raine-Cain

Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Shimp of Salem, N.J., announce the engagement of their niece, Constance M. Raine, to Robert A. D. Cain, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. D. Cain, Sr., of 305 Hiawatha St.

Miss Raine, a 1967 graduate from the Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital School of Nursing, is presently working as a nurse in Washington, D.C.

Cain graduated from Ypsilanti High School in 1963 and Western Michigan University in 1967. He is presently serving with the U.S. Navy at the National Naval Medical Center in Bethesda, Md.

A July wedding is planned.

Akers-Goddard

Mrs. Dorothy Akers of Ypsilanti Township announced the engagement of her daughter, Linda, to William L. Goddard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Goddard of 306 Maple St.

The bride-to-be is a senior attending Belleville High School.

The prospective bridegroom is a sophomore at Eastern Michigan University and an employee at the Fisher Body Willow Run plant. He is a graduate of Tecumseh High School.

No definite wedding date has been set.

Ypsilanti couple Recently married

Miss Elma Jean Armes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester E. Armes, 820 DeSoto St., became the bride of Gerald Van Evans of 516 Ivanhoe St. March 29.

The Rev. Ronald K. Brown officiated at the ceremonies held at the First Free Will Baptist Church. Mrs. Ronald K. Brown was organist.

Matron of honor was the bride's cousin, Mrs. David Todd of Kirksville, Mo. Miss Billy Jean Ewell of Ypsilanti and the groom's sister, Karen, were bridesmaids.

Best man was Richard Ball of Ypsilanti; serving as groomsmen in the ceremony were the groom's cousin, Earl Brown of Monroe, and the bride's brother Donald.

Steven and Rodney Pearce of Ypsilanti, the bride's cousins, were ushers.

Ringbearer in the ceremony was Mark Holmes of Ypsilanti; Miss Lynn Hardee of Greenville, N.C., was a flower girl.

The bride wore a semi-full gown of satin with beaded Chantilly lace appliques covering the skirt. She carried a glamelia bouquet. Medium blue gowns with stand-up collars and elbow length sleeves trimmed in heavy lace were worn by the bridesmaids, who carried pink carnations.

A two-piece dress and jacket of deep rose-colored raw silk was worn by the bride's mother. The groom's mother wore a coat and dress ensemble of light pink satin brocade. Both men wore pink carnation corsages.

A reception was held at the church immediately following the ceremony.

The bride is a Willow Run High School graduate and works at Edwards Brothers, Inc. in Ann Arbor. Also a Willow Run High School graduate, the groom attended Washtenaw Community College and now works for the Kresge Hearing Research Institute at the University of Michigan.

After a two weeks' trip to Florida, the newly-married couple are living at 1125 E. Clark Rd.

HELOISE'S HINTS 'Sun tea'—a thrifty drink

By HELOISE CRUSE
DEAR HELOISE: Just what is sun tea and how do you make it? Mrs. T.T.

I have used this for years, luv. I take loose tea and put some in the bottom of a clean fruit jar.

Fill the jar with hot water from the tap and cap the lid tightly.

Set this any place where the sun shines upon it: In a window or outside. I turn the jar over twice a day.

When it gets strong enough (in a day or so) you will know because of the color and how much tea you put in the jar.

This may seem like a slow way of brewing tea, but it sure does taste different. It may be diluted with cold water anytime. I learned this from the Hawaiians when I lived there.

And a great savings which has NOT been denied by any florist is to pour all leftover tea leaves in water, let set overnight, and use on plants! Don't waste anything!

Heloise

DEAR HELOISE: Blessings on the apple... without it we'd have no vinegar, and where would we go from there??? Mrs. F. Cole

DEAR HELOISE: When you are sewing up a storm and need extra room for your sewing box, patterns, and all of that extra junk we accumulate:

Whiz-bang! Open up one or two TV snack tables. After all, most of us sew on the kitchen table. It sure gives lots of extra room and when suppertime comes along, those tables can be moved into a corner of the kitchen and you can continue the next day in case you don't finish.

Mrs. Oda

DEAR HELOISE: When changing the paper in our kitchen drawers, I didn't have any scissors handy, so I just tore the paper off along the edge of the pulled-out drawer.

The paper tore off nice and smooth and I was delighted that I had found a new way to cut it evenly without having to run to another part of the house for scissors. Mrs. B.D.

DEAR HELOISE: As always, you have inspired me to do some thinking and I made a wonderful discovery today.

For a long time, I have wanted to light the display shelves of my china cupboard (or breakfront as they are sometimes called).

Tonight I got out a string of tiny Christmas tree lights and found that they just fit inside the glass door frame of my china cupboard.

I attached this small string of lights with cellophane tape so as not to mark the wood.

The china cabinet is beautifully lit now and the small lights make a delightful glow in our dining room. Delores Dickinson

Don't ever use brads or a staple gun on any kind of electrical wires, gals. It's dangerous. Either use tape or cup hooks or special brads made for this purpose. Lights should NEVER touch the wood but should hang free. Heloise

DEAR HELOISE: So many dresses have back zippers now, and I was always snagging my hose when stepping into a dress.

Then I discovered that if I turn the dress around so that the zipper is in front when I step into it, I can avoid any snags. Clara Fladick

DEAR HELOISE: After you have used about half a loaf of bread (the kind with a pony tail closing), cut off the extra end of the wrapper. Makes removing the remaining slices much easier. Mrs. Robert Dunn

Ann Arbor home tour Friday

Eight Ann Arbor homes will open their doors to the public when the Ann Arbor Women's City Club holds its 18th annual Home Tour. The tour will be on Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The residences that will be toured vary from barn-red Cape Cod to trapezoidal contemporary, and include such features as a sauna, hand-woven hangings, antique furniture and glass and contemporary paintings and sculpture.

Tour guests will also be welcomed at the new headquarters of the Michigan Historical Society and Michigan Academy of Science, Arts and Letters. Their offices are located in the 19th century Tuomy house, long a landmark on Ann Arbor's Washtenaw Ave. Some of the Tuomys' Victorian furniture still graces the old home.

Ypsilanti women serving as hostesses in homes on the day of the tour are Mrs. Jack Starvas, Mrs. Willard Otis, Mrs. Donald Clark and Mrs. Robert Marsh.

The tour is open to anyone over 12 years of age. Tickets can be obtained for $3 by contacting the City Club office, 662-3279 or by picking them up on the day of the tour at 1830 Washtenaw Ave., Ann Arbor.

Tour goers may have luncheon at the City Club for $2.50.

The barn-red Cape Cod with white trim was built about a year ago by Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Held at 2860 Carpenter Rd. to provide convenient living adjacent to Mrs. Held's studio.

The coordinated color and fabric scheme complements the country-style antique home which boasts barn-board walls and a telephone booth with an old wall phone.

St. back from the road among tall pine and shade trees the old Cornelius Tuomy home offers an elegant historic image as well as serving as headquarters of the historical society.

Definitely not a museum, but a charming look into the era that relaxed in the trappings of a double-suite parlor setting.

Family living — adequate and integrated — was the scheme behind the Mrs. Henry Wege home at 501 Burson

Place. A mod bedroom for the children, an existing balcony and a button panel controlling windows, lights and heat mark this home "contemporary."

A black deacon's bench flanked by a pair of large black antique auto lights on the porch beside the front door welcome guests to the colonial farm-style brick home of Mr. and Mrs. Walton M. Hancock at 3440 Cottontail Lane.

An unusual enclosed garden, a cork bulletin board "gallery" and the basement player piano area provide interesting items for the tour groups.

Placement intent on preserving a shapely mulberry tree already on the 2660 Roseland Ave. lot dictated the trapezoidal shape of the Andrew F. Nagy home family.

The eastern end of the house is built into a hill. Visitors enter the house by a door at the base of a sheer, sloping, wood shingled, windowless roof-wall. A central fireplace adds to the home atmosphere.

Antiques, dolls, pictures, sculpture and art works or crafts made by members of the hosting families enhance the home tour. The welcome mat will be out at each of the homes, so feel relaxed by taking your shoes off. You'll

The Ypsilanti League of Women Voters held its annual elections at a Saturday luncheon meeting at the Huron Motor Inn.

Elected for one year terms are: president — Mrs. George Sayre; vice-president — Mrs. Godfrey Parsons; secretary — Mrs. Paul Schreiner.

Also elected were three League of Women Voters' directors who will serve two year terms: Mrs. Faye Z. Vourallah, Mrs. James Breakey and Mrs. Ralph Chapman.

The annual spring dinner sponsored by the St. Matthew's United Methodist Church's Women's Society of Christian Service will be a smorgasbord this year.

The Friday evening event — to run from 5-7 — will be held in the church, located at 1344 Borgstrom St. Admission will be $1.50 for adults, 75 cents for children, and $5 per family.

'New Eyes' brings Help to the needy

These glasses were my granny's, maybe someone else's granny can use them.

The note was written in a childish hand, wrapped around a pair of eyeglasses and mailed to "New Eyes For The Needy," a Short Hills, N.J. volunteer organization staffed mostly by housewives.

Some 883,835 pairs of glasses were sent to "New Eyes" last year. They didn't all come with touching notes, but they came from every state and from people of all ages.

And they came for the same reason — a desire on the part of the sender to assist "New Eyes" in bringing the gift of better sight to people who have no one else to help them.

The "New Eyes" volunteers have been on the job for 36 years, and donated reusable glasses have always been the mainstay of the organization. When the operation was incorporated in 1947, the treasury consisted of 47 cents.

Despite this, "New Eyes" has never solicited money.

Besides glasses, virtually the only other assistance the 300 volunteers who make up the organization accept is precious metal scrap, silverware, antique and costume jewelry. These are melted down and the money from the reclamation, and from the sale of usable jewelry and silverware donors sometimes send, is used to supply funds established in 106 hospitals all over the country, Canada and Puerto Rico. They pay for new prescription glasses, or if needed, artificial eyes.

While the emphasis is on helping as many people as possible, as quickly as possible, "New Eyes" volunteers don't close their eyes to individual requests for aid.

In 1968 for instance, "New Eyes":

— Answered the request of a Peace Corps volunteer and sent glasses to the natives of a tiny Pacific island.

— Provided glasses for a Vietnam civilian whose poor sight was the subject of a letter from that country written by a U.S. Army private.

— Started a fund to aid a midwestern clinic created by medical students and their instructors to assist poor people not eligible for public assistance because of the limited period of their residence.

One of the happiest aspects of providing assistance is the thank you letters which come in from grateful recipients.

Wrote one ten-year-old Missouri girl, "I thank you for making it possible for me to get these glasses. I will thank Jesus tonight for having such nice people like you."

The "New Eyes" people invite individuals and organizations to help them continue the job of bringing better sight to those who need it most.

Discarded glasses, broken jewelry, and precious metal scrap are needed. Address them to New Eyes For The Needy, Short Hills, N.J. 07078.

Dieting and exercise make for a success story

By IDA JEAN KAIN

The model who slimmed seven bulky inches off the hipline in the process of losing 50 pounds inspired another young lady to take slimming action. Here's her story:

"At last I'm slimming down! As long ago as August, I sent for your exercise leaflet, AWAY WITH THE MIDDLE SPREAD, and your NEW CALORIE CHART. Upon receiving the material, I glanced at it... put it away in a drawer... and promised myself to get going at a later date.

"In December I made myself two skirts from a friend's size 16 pattern. I am 5 feet, 2 inches tall, and weighed about 135 pounds — 20 pounds excess. Size 16 was roomy, so I moved the snaps over. But by New Year's Day, after all the holiday feasting, these skirts were getting too tight.

So Monday, January 13th, was D-Day for me. I measured; bust, 34; waist, 30; hips, 41½. I started carefully with the first five exercises and followed your instructions in the leaflet to stop with those five, for I do have back trouble. Later I added the leg swing and the side-bend exercises.

To my surprise, at the end of the first week, my waist was down one inch and hips a half inch slimmer. The second week of exercising brought the waist down to 28 inches and the hips to 40¼ inches. This proved to me that the exercises would do the trick.

"I set April 1 as the goal when I'd be slim enough to wear slacks that wouldn't look too bad on me. I counted calories — which usually went over 1300 a day. But I did cut down my bread consumption by half as I was a bread pusher.

"I also added other exercises to yours. Sunday, March 3rd, when I stepped on my daughter's scales, I weighed 126 pounds. My bust is now 33; waist, 27½; abdomen, 36½; and hips, 39 inches. When you once get started, seems that everything keeps

Kitchen Quick tips

When you are broiling lobster on the half-shell, always brush it with melted butter before it goes under the heat.

If you want that meat-coating of egg and fine crumbs to stick extra well, chill the meat after coating and before cooking.

Breast of veal makes an excellent stew. Season the meat with bay leaf and thyme and add onions, carrots and celery.

After pre-cooking sweetbreads in salted acidulated water, they may be dipped in beaten egg and crumbs and sautéed in butter.

When freezing a casserole dish, line the dish with foil before filling it, then freeze. When it's frozen solid, slip food and foil from the casserole dish, seal tightly and replace in freezer. When ready to bake, slip food from foil, place casserole in the same dish and bake.

One teaspoon of lemon juice boiled with rice will make it whiter.

Cooperation, good rapport urged for area lawmen

By JOHN COBB
Of The Press Staff

Members of the Law Enforcement Committee of the Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors and Sheriff Douglas J. Harvey were advised Tuesday that both must cooperate and have a good "business" relationship in order to serve their bosses — the public.

Kenneth L. Preadmore, president of the Michigan State Sheriff's Association and sheriff of Ingham County, gave the advice to the group when they met yesterday to learn more of the operations of the Sheriff's Department.

The meeting had been suggested by Ypsilanti Supervisor Donald M. Edmonds to help the committee, which has been in conflict recently with the sheriff, understand how various departments got along with each other.

Also attending was State Police Commander Col. Fredrick Davids, Sheriff Bernard Grysen of Ottawa County who also is chairman of the state sheriff's association ethics committee, Ann Arbor Police Chief Walter Krasny and County Prosecutor William F. Delhey.

College demonstrations, the use of chemical weapons, finances and police use of trained dogs were among the numerous items discussed by the committee and their guests.

Col. Davids said State Police have some 20 teams of dogs used for tracking and guarding of police equipment but that he has not found it necessary to use them for crowd control. Sheriff Preadmore said that his department prefers men who can think and not dogs which just react to commands. Sheriff Grysen said his department has dogs but has not found it necessary to use them for crowd control.

Harvey has been told by the Board of Supervisors not to use dogs in crowd control but insists that he will use them as a second line of defense in the future if necessary.

Harvey said he was not concerned with the policies of other departments since each area has its own problems. He cited several other counties and large city and state departments who did use dogs as a first line defense.

Col. Davids, speaking on relations with the news media, expressed the belief that "the less said, the better" and said that information which might jeopardize a trial should not be released.

The use of chemical Mace was discussed with Sheriff Grysen noting that, properly used, it can be a great asset to the policeman. Chief Krasny of Ann Arbor said his department has Mace but that it is not issued to the men. Harvey's men are carrying a spray but have used it only a few times since it was purchased.

The controversial subject of overtime and compensatory time-off for deputies was discussed with each spokesman explaining his county's procedures for paying overtime or giving time off. Most agreed that overtime payments must be approved by their governing bodies when it goes beyond budget allocations.

Harvey noted that overtime restrictions imposed by the Board of Supervisors have caused the cutting of training programs for deputies, canceled driver education programs and cause a serious cutback in road patrols.

A recent study, he said, showed a drastic cut from five or six cars on the road each shift or two, but with the same number of complaints still being received. Under-sheriff Harold Owings said that 60 felony investigations are being left undone due to the recent murders, the ensuing investigation and lack of men.

Members of the committee heard how the state, county and city departments "back up" each other in cases of emergency and how they help each other in investigations.

Col. Davids said one of the things hurting police departments the most is being tied up excessively in court. Being required to be present in court has become a "serious" problem and increased both overtime pay and compensatory time off requirements.

Members of the Law Enforcement Committee indicated that the meeting with chief legal officers from other areas had helped them get a better idea of the problems facing them. They learned that the problems they were facing were not unique to Washtenaw County but common everywhere.

As Sheriff Preadmore noted, "Personalities can not enter into our job. It's a business."

The chief law enforcement officers said that most departments are greatly understaffed and cited a need for more specialized training, better pay and better benefits for the officers. Harvey said that without the cooperation of state and city departments, it would be impossible for his department to operate as it does now.

In closing, Sheriff Preadmore said that no matter what the guidelines given to other department, the supervisors and sheriff must cooperate with each other for the benefit of the public.

Accused Murderer Still held

NEW YORK (AP) — A remedial reading teacher in Brooklyn's Ocean Hill-Brownsville District, accused in the killing of a Detroit policeman, was turned over to city detectives Tuesday for arraignment in criminal court.

U.S. Commissioner Clayton D. Hollinger, dismissed a fugitive warrant lodged against Rafael Viera, 20, who had surrendered to federal authorities April 18. Viera, after mugging and fingerprinting at police headquarters, was to be arraigned before a criminal court judge and decide whether to waive or contest extradition to Detroit.

Viera had attended a convention in Detroit of the Public Citizens of the Republic of New Africa. He was arrested the day after the March 29 killing of a patrolman and the wounding of another policeman, but the charges were later dismissed. Subsequently, he was charged in the murder and a federal warrant accusing him of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution was lodged.

Millage Approved In WR

Votes say yes
By 3-2 margin

"The people of Willow Run are very happy that the millage election has been successful and we will guarantee a complete education for all youths in the area," said Edwin T. Gray, superintendent of the district. "We are enthusiastically looking forward to continued progress and excellent programming through the cooperative efforts of the professional staff and community."

"We attribute the success of the millage election to a large part of the hardwork and unity of the SOS Citizens Advisory Committee," Gray said.

The "SOS" Committee was organized by citizens in the district after the defeat of the first millage proposal on Feb. 11. The citizens on the committee investigated why the millage proposal had been defeated and what they could do to assure that the proposal would not be defeated a second time when it went before the voters.

"Our success today was due totally to the interest of students and parents in the district," said Robert K. Holloway, president of the Board of Education. "Nobody wins except the students."

"This is our night, we've worked hard for this," said Mrs. Lois Freeman, chairman of the "SOS" committee, as she offered cake and coffee to people at the victory celebration. Two large sheet cakes with "Save Our Schools" inscribed on them had been made to celebrate the occasion.

"Our schools have been saved by interested voters and hard working citizens who wanted our millage to pass," said Mrs. Freeman. "We used every tactic we could think of and we were rewarded tonight."

Although the "SOS" committee has achieved its goal, they are considering continuing the committee. If continued, the committee would handle complaints and visit the schools so that they would be able to make recommendations on how the money in the district should be spent.

The committee commended the students in the district for their interest and participation in the "SOS" campaign. Special recognition was given to seniors at Willow Run High School who "wanted the students coming up to have the same thing they had had."

"My wife told me not to come home if the millage didn't pass," said Sandy J. Johnston, a member of the SOS committee.

"I guess I can tear up my letter now," said John H. Derossett, a typing teacher at Edmonson Junior High School. Derossett was one of the 105 first year probationary teachers in the area that had received a letter from the school district informing him that the district would be unable to rehire him if the millage didn't pass.

Auto dealer Criticizes New cars

WASHINGTON (AP)—Edwin J. Mullane, a Ford dealer in Newark, N.J., told senators Tuesday new cars are arriving from the factory "in worse condition" than in the past.

Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., opening a new round of hearings on auto repair problems, had asked him whether cars are arriving from factories with more or less defects.

In his reply, Mullane rattled off a list of 30 defects he said his shop had found Monday in checking newly delivered cars. He did not say how many cars were involved, but said repairs had to be made to correct leaks, brakes, electrical systems, wheel alignments and other items.

He said he was entitled to factory compensation on only 10 of them because the others were among 67 items for normal pre-delivery repair checks to get cars in shape for customers.

Hart said auto makers have agreed to increase payments to dealers so car buyers can have a better chance to get the warranty repairs they pay for when they buy a car.

Hart said Ford, Chrysler and General Motors also have started action in Detroit to put more emphasis on making new cars and easier to fix.

'Goop' smears 35 mile area

POINTE MOUILLE (AP) — A 35-square-mile portion of Lake Erie was covered today with a floating substance variously described as a waste oil slick, a water-soluble chemical or "some kind of goop."

The material was discharged accidentally Tuesday from a waste storage pond at Chrysler Corp. plant in Trenton, located between Detroit and the point where the Detroit River empties into Lake Erie.

The Coast Guard said it had located the patch of oil between a point at midchannel and the Canadian shore at the mouth of the river.

A spokesman for the Chrysler Corp. said it had tested the discharge in the river and discovered no trace of oil, but found it consisted of a water soluble chemical called Dresinate, which he said is harmless to humans and wildlife and is used to break down oil.

"We know there's a big patch of some kind of goop out there on the lake and we've got two boats in the middle of it right now trying to figure out what it is," the Chrysler spokesman said.

The spokesman later said experts had determined the patch consisted of mostly Dresinate with "as few as two gallons of oil."

"That's their contention," said a Coast Guard spokesman, "but there is an oil slick."

Laurence O'Leary, director of the local office of the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration said that "close to 260,000 gallons of polluted material" flowed into the lake.

Of that, he said, more than 10,000 gallons was oil.

Coast Guard Cmdr. Warren Waggett said the slick was threatening beaches on the Canadian side of the lake and river mouth, but added that none had washed up on shore.

The Chrysler spokesman said a total of some 72,000 gallons of material was pumped out of the storage basin into the river. Material normally is pumped from the bottom of the pond, he said, but the waste sludge remains afloat on the top and does not escape until it is trucked away and burned.

The valve carrying the material from the basin was left open accidentally for 24 hours, the spokesman said.

A private pilot who was hired to fly over the affected area said he could not spot any more oil than is normal on Lake Erie. "Normally if you dump five gallons of oil on the water you could spot the slick from the air," the pilot said.

"I don't see how he could have missed it," said a spokesman for the Michigan Water Resources Commission. "It may have broken up a bit, but there's still a large slick on the east side which looks like it could go up on the beaches on the Canadian side."

The threatened area is dotted with private and public beaches. Across the channel on the Michigan side are beaches and a game preserve.

The Water Resources Commission spokesman said that some 20,000 ducks also were threatened by the substance. "I don't know of any duck mortalities yet, but we've found some birds with oil on them," he said.

A private firm was retained by the auto company to contain the patch and skim it from the surface of the water, Chrysler said.

Vietnam escapee Rejoins family, But not his girl

GLENVIEW, Ill. (AP) — A Michigan soldier who escaped after 14 months in a Viet Cong prison camp was reunited with his family Tuesday but missing from the happy ending was the girl he left behind him. Instead, his parents handed him a "Dear John" letter.

Spec. 5 Thomas H. Van Putten, 21, clad in pajamas and a robe, stepped from an Air Force transport plane into the arms of his parents, Harry and Hazel Van Putten of Caledonia, Mich. He was surrounded by a brother, two sisters and 11 nieces and nephews.

His parents quickly told him that his high school sweetheart, whom he had dated for five years, had married another man shortly after Van Putten was reported missing in action Feb. 10, 1968.

The soldier, who lost 60 pounds during his captivity, had told newsmen last week that he was coming home to get married.

Powell's Family Integrates

DETROIT (AP) — U.S. Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr., D-N.Y., says the upcoming marriage of his son to a white girl "has no meaning in the civil rights struggle, it's a personal thing."

Powell, a Negro, spoke briefly about the marriage to newsmen at Metropolitan Airport Tuesday where he boarded a plane which took him to a speaking engagement at Central Michigan University in Mount Pleasant.

"I wish them the best," he said. "She even belongs to my church."

Mrs. John J. Slocum announced the wedding plans Monday. Her daughter Beryl is to marry Adam Clayton Powell III in Washington at the end of May. Miss Slocum's ancestry traces back to the Mayflower.

Meanwhile, the 61-year-old legislator said, "I would caution my soul brothers and sisters not to let themselves be used" by the Students for Democratic Society (SDS).

Powell said SDS uses the issue of racism for its own ends.

He is awaiting outcome of his suit against the U.S. House of Representatives, charging before the Supreme Court that the House acted illegally when it unseated him last year. The House has since stripped him of seniority and some pay.

Powell was a spectator at the proceedings Monday.

"For the first time in many years I had the feeling of being in an atmosphere of democracy," he said.

He mentioned that black Americans have been leaderless since the death of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. but ruled himself out of taking such leadership.

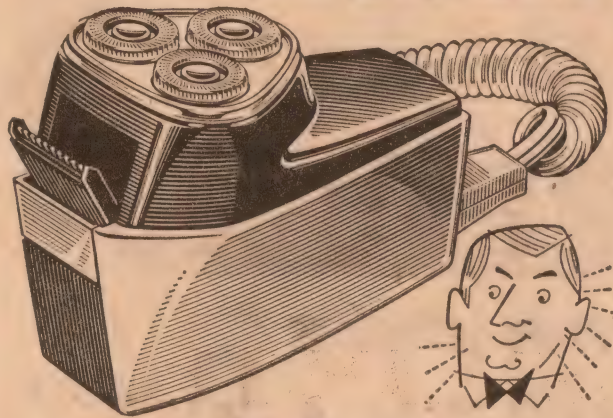

"I am too old," he said. "The nearest I've seen to leadership is Julian Bond but I don't think he has enough trust yet."

Bond is a State Representative from Georgia.

Fingerprint limit blow to law says chief

DETROIT (AP) — If a Supreme Court decision limiting the ability of police to take fingerprints means "you could not use some form of elimination of suspects, I think law and order has been dealt a final blow," says the head of the Detroit patrolmen's union.

Carl Parsell, president of the Detroit Police Officers Association, said he could not make a final assessment of the effects of Tuesday's high court edict until he knew more about it.

But the DPOA chief said he would not like to see the decision regarded as support of Detroit Recorder's Court Judge George Crockett, who recently sparked a controversy by ordering the release of a number of police suspects because he said tests to determine if they had fired weapons had been administered unconstitutionally. The decision places fingerprints in the same category with other evidence gathered by police and specifies that they cannot be used as evidence if they are taken without informing a suspect of his right to an attorney.

Crockett said the decision vindicates his release of the suspects arrested by police in the shootout outside an inner city church last month.

The Recorder's Court judge said he felt the nitrate tests administered by police were improper in the same manner.

U-M spring grid preview: there'll be a new look

By DAVE HERBST
Press Sports Editor

After watching and working with the University of Michigan football team for 14 spring sessions, Glenn "Bo" Schembechler has some definite ideas about the challenge facing him in his first season at Michigan.

The former Miami of Ohio football coach shed light on some of his problems, and some of his strengths and pleasant surprises, during an interview session yesterday afternoon.

Q. One of the keynotes of your early spring practices seemed to be your dissatisfaction with how things were going. Could this be construed to indicate that you were in some way dissatisfied with your personnel?

Schembechler: No. Just with the transition to the new offense and the new defense. Everything's different. We made a lot of mistakes — fumbles, penalties and pass interceptions — the things that beat you. But the scrimmages have been good and getting better. Now we're getting people lined up to where they'll play next fall.

Q. You mention a difference in offense. What exactly will this be?

Schembechler: We're not relying solidly on one back. We'll line up on the "I" formation where the tailback is the key runner — and then shift to a belly — where both the quarterback and fullback are your important runners.

Q. Speaking of quarterback, who looks to be the top candidate to replace Dennis Brown?

Schembechler: Don Moorhead (6-3, 200-pound junior, South Haven) and Jim Betts (6-3½, 190-pound junior, Cleveland, Ohio). Both will be used, but right now, Moorhead is ahead of Betts. You see, Betts was originally a quarterback when he came to Michigan, then he was moved away from the position and now he's back. He'll see some action.

Q. How would you compare Moorhead to Brown?

Schembechler: Of course, never having worked with Brown, it's difficult to assess. From watching on the films, I'd say Brown was quicker afoot than Moorhead. But then, Moorhead has the size and height. I think he'll be a good one.

Q. In that he's not as quick as Brown, do you feel he won't be the multiple threat quarterback Brown was?

Schembechler: No. I think he'll be a threat both to pass and run.

Q. Garvie Craw (6-2 222 pounds, senior, Montclair, N.J.) ran the ball in Saturday's scrimmage. Is this an indication that his duties will differ from last year when he was almost exclusively a blocking back?

Schembechler: Of course, he's got a lot more to learn and a long way to come. But Garvie is coming. And yes, he definitely will run the football next fall.

Q. Who will you use to complete the backfield?

Schembechler: Paul Staroba (6-3, 200 pounds, junior, Flint) has looked real good as the wide receiver. He'll be our third back for sure. At tailback we'll probably go with Glenn Doughty who, as you know, is coming up from the Freshman team. He's highly regarded by everyone on the staff. He's got wonderful speed. He's 6-2 and 200 pounds. He's quick as a cat and can dodge people. Last Saturday he had three long runs during the scrimmage. (Doughty is from Detroit).

Q. Are there any other freshmen coming up who can expect to break in as starters?

Schembechler: On offense, Doughty is the only one. On defense, Tom Darden (6-1½, 185 pounds, Sandusky, Ohio) may start as Wolf Man — that's what we call our monster back.

Q. What would you consider as your strongest area?

Schembechler: What we have right now, whether it's good enough or not, is balance. The defense is coming now. The offense can both run and pass. There's balance within the defense, against the run or the pass. I don't think we're overly strong or notably weak in any particular area.

Q. Still, there must be some things to cause you concern?

Schembechler: Yes. Offensively, it would be our depth at fullback, tackle and center, and our play at split end and center. Defensively, it would be our tackle play.

Q. You're talking, of course, strictly depth and not the calibre of the players you have?

Schembechler: Definitely. With players like Jack Harpring (6-4, 225 pounds, junior, Cincinnati, Ohio) and Dan Dierdorf (6-4, 255 pounds, junior, Canton, Ohio) at the offensive tackles, we'll be solid on the first line. Dierdorf has gone 14 sessions without problems to the knee (If you'll recall, Dierdorf was injured in the Ohio State game last fall and underwent surgery). This spring has been a really big success in that we've gone 14 sessions without a serious injury.

Q. We understood Bob Baumgartner (6-0, 215 pounds, senior, Chicago) was ready to go?

Schembechler: Yes, and he's gone 14 practice sessions without any problems (Baumgartner sat out last season with a leg injury).

Q. What about some pleasant surprises?

Schembechler: Well, we've got a lot of sophomores running on the second team. That makes the future encouraging. Bruce Elliott (6-0, 174 pounds, sophomore, Indianapolis, Ind., and son of Pete Elliott, Bump's brother) is one of those we'll be switching after the break. We'll move him from the offensive wingback to a defensive back. He's a really fine athlete.

Q. What about Leon Hart Jr. (son of Notre Dame All-American and all-pro with the Detroit Lions)?

Schembechler: He's out of football with a shoulder injury.

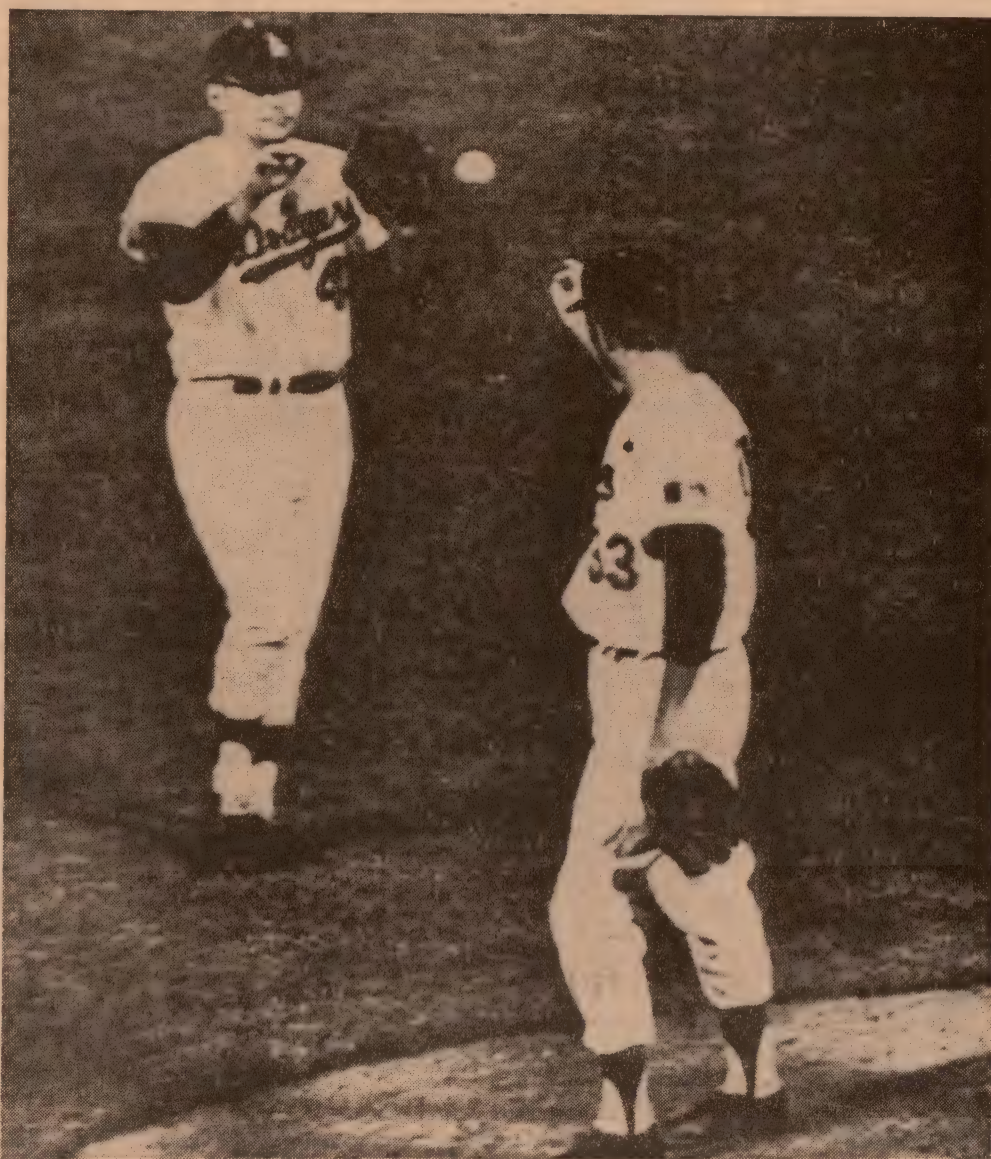

It occurred in high school and the doctors ruled him out just before the start of practice. No, he'll never play.

Q. When you resume after finals, what will you emphasize?

Schembechler: During our last six sessions, we've got to do a job after making the player switches. We figure to make personnel shifts over the break. Also, our kicking game needs work and we want to work in several good, tough scrimmages. We want to add a couple of offensive plays and do a couple of things with the defense — like with the blitzes.

Michigan, running a split spring practice for the first time ever, will return to the gridiron April 30 and will practice up until May 6, when the annual windup scrimmage will be held in Michigan Stadium.

Tigers top Nats with 3 in 9th; McLain to face Orioles tonight

BALTIMORE (AP) — Looking like the world champions of 1968, the Detroit Tigers invade Baltimore for a baseball contest tonight which could propel them into a first place tie with the Orioles in the American League's east division.

The last minute magic which was the Tigers' hallmark last year glittered again Tuesday night as Detroit scored three runs in the top of the ninth inning to topple Washington 4-2.

"It's just like last year," said relief pitcher Don McMahon. "We hung in there and our hitters came through."

Pitcher Denny McLain, last year's 31-game winner who has a 2-2 mark this season, starts for Detroit tonight, with Miguel Cuellar, with a 0-2 record, on the mound for the Orioles.

Detroit has an 8-4 win-loss record, one game behind Baltimore with an 11-5 mark.

The Tigers didn't look like winners through the first eight innings in Washington Tuesday night as the Senators held a 2-1 lead, scoring single runs in the second and third innings.

Washington pitcher Camilo Pascual stifled Detroit batters during the first eight frames allowing only Bill Freehan's leadoff homerun in the third.

But Tom Matchick, pinch-hitting for Don Wert, opened the ninth with a single to center. Gates Brown, another pinch hitter walked.

"In a situation like that, it's the manager's option," said Dick McAuliffe, the next hitter, after the game. "Mayo had me hitting away on the first pitch and Pascual threw me a fast ball for a strike."

"He wanted me to bunt on the next pitch and Pascual threw me a curve ball that was low," said McAuliffe.

The infield was up, left fielder Ed Stroud played shallow and centerfielder Del Unser shaded to right for the left-swinging McAuliffe. Pascual threw a fast ball to the outside.

McAuliffe hit it up the alley in left center to the fence, Detroit scored two runs and the Tiger second baseman had a standup triple.

"It was a good pitch," said McAuliffe. "He doesn't want to throw it tight to me because I can pull it for a home-run. He threw it away from me and I just reached out and hit it."

Sets interim DDT limit

WASHINGTON (AP) — An interim limit for DDT concentration in fish was imposed by the Food and Drug Administration Tuesday in the wake of large seizures of Lake Michigan Coho salmon.

The FDA set the limit at 5 parts of DDT per million PPM.

A spokesman for the State Department of Natural Resources said they planned a strategy meeting Wednesday to appraise the effect of the interim order.

Meanwhile, a spokesman for Gov. William Milliken said the governor strenuously objects to action of the federal government in disregarding the request of five governors that establishment of the interim tolerance levels be withheld temporarily pending full exploration of scientific information which the states are making available.

The action was taken even before the governors received a response from Sunday's request that they meet May 1 with Secretary Robert H. Finch of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare to present information which only recently became available, the spokesman said.

The FDA said it has seized more 34,000 pounds of frozen Coho salmon in the past month with DDT concentrations ranging from 13 to 19 parts per million.

"This guideline is intended to protect the public from excessive levels of DDT in fish while a full scientific review is completed," said Dr. Herbert L. Ley Jr., FDA commissioner.

"It also gives the fishing industry a specific standard," he said. "Fish carrying residues higher than 5 ppm will be subject to seizure."

Secretary Finch announced Monday a special commission to study pesticides and said at that time interim DDT limits for fish were forthcoming.

Lay said the FDA has asked the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council to nominate a panel of experts to review DDT residues in fish and recommend permanent permissible limits.

Lay said pesticide monitoring by the FDA indicates DDT residues are below 1 ppm in 90 per cent of the fish marketed in the United States.

If Coho Salmon with 5 ppm DDT were a regular part of a person's diet, he said, consumption should be limited to one quarter pound a day to stay within safe levels determined by the World Health Organization.

A significant part of the DDT residues can be eliminated by eating only filets, he said, because the pesticide residues accumulate in fatty outer tissues.

Don Drysdale may have to retire

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers may have lost more than a baseball game to San Francisco.

Don Drysdale, who holds a fistful of pitching records and 205 lifetime victories—the most by a Dodger in history—intimated after Tuesday's 6-0 loss to the Giants that he may be on the verge of retirement.

"I'm going to have to do some serious soul-searching in the next few days," he remarked softly after being chased from the mound during a three-run Giant uprising in the fifth inning.

"This just might be it," he said. "I'm not going to keep on like this. These guys have a chance to go all the way and I'm not going to jeopardize their chances every four days. Everybody has to go at one time or another. Some guys go gradually, some go overnight. I just know I can't go on like this."

Drysdale's ineffectiveness stems from a shoulder injury dating back to last year when he was forced to miss the last six weeks of the season. The injury came after he had established a major league record of 58 2-3 consecutive scoreless innings.

The towering right-hander said he planned to talk to club owner Walter O'Malley and Vice President Al Campanis "within the next couple of days" to discuss his future.

"I wondered last year if I would be able to come back this season," Drysdale said. "Now I'm beginning to feel as if the Good Lord is saying that this is it."

In other National League action Tuesday, Montreal shut out St. Louis 2-0, Pittsburgh swept a doubleheader from Chicago 7-5 and 6-5 and San Diego socked Atlanta 8-4 and Cincinnati thumped Houston, 14-0. Philadelphia's game at New York was postponed by rain.

Tony Perez clubbed four hits including a two-run homer and Johnny Bench drove in five runs in Cincinnati's drubbing of Houston. The Astros managed just three hits against Mel Queen and Clay Carroll.

Queen, attempting a comeback from arm trouble, worked six innings before his arm acted up and Carroll took over. The Reds rapped 18 hits and ran their two-game totals to 25 runs against the Astros.

Bill Stoneman, who hurled a no-hitter in his last start, came back with a second straight shutout as Montreal blanked St. Louis. Stoneman allowed six hits and got the only run he needed when Rusty Staub singled home an unearned run in the first inning.

Pittsburgh cooled off the Cubs with rookie Bob Robertson playing a key role in the doubleheader sweep. Robertson doubled home a pair of runs in the fourth inning of the opener and then delivered the winning run with a sacrifice fly in the eighth inning. Robertson had tripled and scored earlier and Willie Stargell had whacked a grand slam home run.

Ollie Brown walloped a three-run homer, highlighting a six-run San Diego explosion in the sixth inning that carried the Padres past Atlanta.

Braves' football star Will play for Eastern

By BARRY LEVINE
Press Sports Writer

Eastern Michigan football Coach Dan Boisture has announced the signing of an institutional letter of intent by two top high school football players from the state.

The two, Ron Fernandes of Ypsilanti High and Joe Andrews of Blissfield, have already been accepted for fall admittance to the university.

Fernandes, a 6-4½, 235-pound lineman, was an All-Sauk Trail League offensive tackle last season and has a bright future ahead of him. Ypsilanti High Coach Ralph Perriello says, "... he has good ability, and is an excellent pass blocker."

Most experts, including Boisture, feel that the former Brave star has all the ingredients to make a fine college football player. All he has to do is work to his full potential.

The big senior will not be 18 until next September, but he is eager for the August 29 opening of practice. In choosing Eastern, he turned down offers from Central and Western Michigan, and Hillsdale. He chose Eastern, "... because I know they play real good football and I know most of the coaches pretty well."

Andrews is a large (6-2, 210 lb.) fullback who also played defensive tackle. He was named to the Class B all-state team the past season.

He averaged 28 yards on kickoff returns and did some of Blissfield's kicking. In his three varsity seasons he gained nearly 2,000 yards, and seemed to have an unusual knack for picking up needed yardage on important third down plays.

In addition to being an All-Lenawee County selection two times, he received two varsity letters in basketball and three in track.

Simons, once Huron star, May join Eastern staff

The appointment of former Eastern Michigan basketball Capt. Harold Simons and Alcorn A&M assistant football Coach James Shaw to Dan Boisture's football staff. The pair are the first full time Negro athletic aides at Eastern.

Joe Frazier wins On 1st round KO

HOUSTON (AP) — Now that he has disposed of a bricklayer with two vicious swings of his wicked left hook, the question before boxing circles today was whether Joe Frazier is ready to risk his share of the world's heavyweight title against rugged Jerry Quarry.

It took the quick-fisted Frazier only 96 seconds to destroy unknown and unranked Dave Zyglewicz Tuesday night in the Philadelphia's third title defense.

A press conference was called for noon, EST, today by the Madison Square Garden Boxing, Inc. for "an important announcement concerning a major title."

Speculation was that Frazier had been offered a quarter of a million dollars to meet Quarry, the No. 2 World Boxing Association heavyweight, June 23 in the Garden.

Yancey "Yank" Durham, Frazier's manager, said, "we're still dickering. It looks pretty good. That much money would sure be hard to turn down."

Quarry, who posted an impressive win over Buster March 24 in the Garden, is 31-2-4 with 18 kayos.

Frazier, now unbeaten in 23 bouts with 20 knockouts, quickly ended Zyglewicz' record of never having been knocked down. Dave's record is 28-1.

The champion caught the former Navy Atlantic Fleet champion with a blistering left hook and down he went. After a mandatory eight count, Zyglewicz was doubled over with a right and then lashed with another left hook and it was all over.

"I never felt nobody hit as hard," said Zyglewicz. "He's real fast. I never saw the knockout punch coming."

Frazier said, "There's nobody I can't beat. He (Zyglewicz) has a lot of heart. I think he was a good fighter to get up."

The bearded Frazier had a 14-pound advantage at 204½ to 190½.

Simons, a 23-year-old native of Ann Arbor, played varsity basketball for the Hurons for four years and was one of the few cagers who successfully made the transition from the days of de-emphasis to the present while holding his starters' role.

He capped his tenure by captaining an Eastern Michigan team that fought its way to the quarter-final round of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics tournament.

During the past year, Simons served as a graduate assistant and helped coach the freshman team while working on his Master's Degree. If his appointment is approved, he will become a freshman coach and a varsity aide and will be an instructor in the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

At Ann Arbor High, Simons earned letters in football, basketball and golf. He was an all-stater as a defensive back in football and was a member of a golf team that won league championships twice and the regional title once.

But it was in basketball that he really made his mark. He led the Pioneers in scoring all three years and was elected team captain his senior year.

He set records for most points in a season, most points in a career, most points in a game, most consecutive free throws and most free throws made in a season.

Shaw, a 31-year-old native of Fayette, Ala., has been an assistant football coach and offensive coordinator at Alcorn A&M for the past three years.

Eastern Coach Boisture met Shaw when the Huron mentor was a speaker at a four-day football clinic three years ago in Alcorn, Miss.

"I was very impressed with Shaw at the time and found him extremely knowledgeable about the game," states Boisture. "My first impressions about Shaw were confirmed when Alcorn A&M went on to be one of the top collegiate teams in the nation, and much of the credit for Alcorn A&M's success can be traced directly to Shaw."

Shaw's appointment would bring to three the number of full-time aides under Boisture. Others are Nick Coso and Dick Moseley.

However, Boisture emphasizes that the graduate of Miles College in Birmingham, Ala., would not necessarily replace, in duties, Ted Guthard, the offensive line coach who left Eastern in favor of a post at Wake Forest.

"I had him (Shaw) in mind about two months ago," points out Boisture. That was before Guthard announced he was leaving.

Boisture said he still hopes to name a fourth full-time aide for next season.

Detroit hires Jim Harding

DETROIT (AP) — Jim Harding, recently fired by the Minnesota Pipers of the American Basketball Association, Tuesday became the second head basketball coach hired by the University of Detroit in less than a week.

Harding's appointment was announced at a noon news conference.

Future bright For Suttles At Michigan

ANN ARBOR — "He has a lot to learn. He has a lot to pick up. But he's going to come. He figures to play a lot of football at Michigan."

That was the chorus of Coach Glenn "Bo" Schembechler and assistant Larry Smith, a Schembechler aide at Miami of Ohio before the two moved to Ann Arbor. And the player to whom they were referring was none other than Belleville's Wayne Suttles, one of 90 candidates still out for spring drills at Michigan.

Suttles, a 6-2, 230-pounder, is seeing his first glimpse of the varsity life after gaining plaudits "as one of the top dozen or half dozen freshman players," according to Smith.

The former guard and linebacker for Coach Jim Richendollar's Belleville team is being used strictly as an offensive lineman—a tackle, in the Wolverine camp. "And, of course, he's got three veteran tackles and three guards returning ahead of him," points out Smith, "but he's going to come. He's a strong, rough kid."

"He's working with the second offensive group against the first defense, so he gets about as good a workout as he could."

According to Smith, it appears Suttles will be used this fall as a reserve lineman, at the position the Michigan system denotes as "quick tackle." Smith explains that as the tackle opposite the tight end and flanker. "He would be used primarily to cut off blocks when we go wide and to protect the passer."

Smith said that the staff originally had tagged Suttles as a guard, but "he's not quite fast enough and he's going to get bigger. He's a big kid."

At Belleville, Suttles was the leading tackler his senior year on a team that posted a 4-3 record. He was all-Suburban Six Association as a linebacker and was all-area at the same position.

He lettered three years in football and two years in baseball.

Harrelson in fold; Tribe loses anyway

By the Associated Press
The Cleveland Indians, given one last chance, proved again that only good can come from finally landing The Hawk.

After Ken Harrelson decided to forego retirement Tuesday evening and report to Cleveland the Indians went out and celebrated in what has become their accustomed way—by losing.

Showing why they need Harrelson's big bat, the Indians were grounded by the Baltimore Orioles 3-2 Tuesday night for their seventh consecutive defeat and 11th in 12 games this season.

Meanwhile, the Boston Red Sox showed again they can win without Harrelson, unloading four home runs to beat the New York Yankees 8-3 for their second victory in three starts since trading Harrelson last Saturday.

In other games, the Detroit Tigers rallied for a 4-2 decision over Washington, Kansas City fought for a 2-1 victory over Seattle, Oakland trounced Minnesota 7-0 and California mauled the Chicago White Sox 8-0.

The Indians, desperately needing some fire power after scoring only 34 runs in 12 games, this time rolled over and died for Tom Phoebus and Pete Richert.

Phoebus, raising his record to 3-0, yielded only three hits before walking the bases full with two out in the eighth inning, but Richert came on to retire Max Alvis on one pitch and blank the Indians in the ninth.

Cleveland needed a walk, stolen base, passed ball and an error to get one run and Larry Brown homered for the other.

But the Orioles, who humbled the Indians 11-0 the night before, won this one on Boog Powell's first homer that broke a 2-2 deadlock in the fifth inning.

Boston, on the other hand, showed little effect from losing the American League's run batted in champion of 1968 as Mike Andrews, Rico Petrocelli and Carl Yastrzemski slammed solo homers and Tony Conigliaro belted a three-run shot in the fourth, breaking a 2-2 tie.

The attack against Stan Bahnsen, 0-4, made it easy for unbeaten Ray Culp, who won his third in a row with a four-hitter. Only Joe Pepitone's two-run homer troubled him.

Kansas City used Pat Kelly's elusive slide home on Lou Piniella's short sacrifice fly in the fifth inning to break a 1-1 deadlock for its victory, but not before a battle royal.

The benches and bullpens of both teams emptied with numerous fights in the fourth inning after the Royals' Ellie Rodriguez bowled over second baseman Tommy Harper of the Pilots on a force play. First Rodriguez and Harper squared off, prompting their teammates to join them. The two were ejected and then Harper had to be restrained from charging umpire Russ Goetz.

After the battle, and Kelly's slide, rookie right-hander Mike Hedlund continued to hold off the Pilots with only two hits until Moe Drabowsky took over in the eighth.

Rookie Rolie Fingers, making his first major league start, stopped Minnesota on five hits as Oakland ended the Twins' seven-game winning streak.

Rich Reichardt, Jim Fregosi and Jay Johnstone hit homers to back Jim McGlothin's eight-hit pitching as California broke a six-game losing streak by routing the White Sox.

Montreal nips Bruins, takes 3-2 series lead

MONTREAL (AP) — "These rookie coaches, it takes them a while." The remark was made with a wry smile, as Harry Sinden, Boston Bruins' seceded some rather uncomplimentary phrases uttered about him in The Montreal Canadiens' dressing room.

Sinden's smile had to be wry, because he had just watched his Bruins drop a 4-2 decision to hustling Montreal a decision that sends the Canadiens back to Boston for the sixth game of their best-of-7 Stanley Cup semifinal with a 3-2 lead.

Sinden's remark came after Claude Ruel, Montreal's first-year coach, had been disturbed during the course of his congratulatory trip around the Canadiens' room by a questioner asking him to make a prediction on the final outcome of the series.

The prediction was not forthcoming from the emotional Ruel and the point was pressed. It was fielded by a simple answer that he did not make predictions, but sticks to winning hockey games.

When the interrogator pursued the matter with a question about Boston's tough brand of hockey, Ruel became indignant. He had just finished watching his club get a first-period goal by defenseman Jacques Lapierre, second-period goals by J. C. Tremblay and Claude Provost, while the Bruins outshot the Canadiens 26-10 and another by Provost in the third period to wrap it up.

In that hectic second period, Ken Hodge, of Boston had scored twice on a harassed Rogatien Vachon in the Montreal goal.

Provost's second goal was an unassisted effort, as the veteran winger and penalty-killer, banked a perfect carom of Boston's Bobby Orr and behind a startled Gerry Cheevers, the Bruins' goalie.

"Listen, I leave those predictions to the other guys," Ruel told his persistent heckler. "These other guys are always going to beat us in six or we're not going to win another game this year. I don't pay any attention to them."

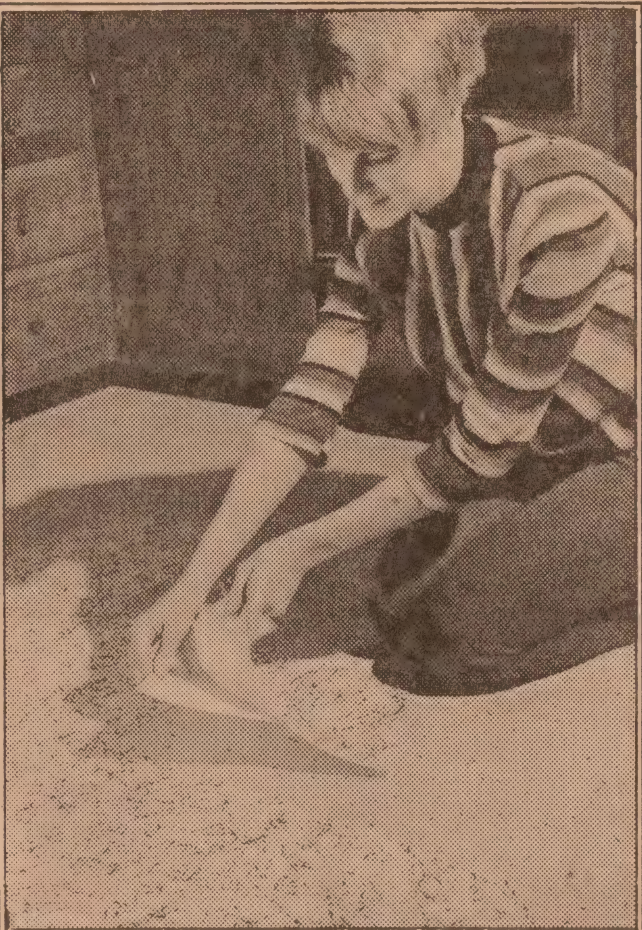

Only 35 seconds were left in the first period when Lapierre beat Cheevers with a hard screen shot from the left point on a power play.

Provost and J. C. Tremblay scored in rapid succession at 1:08 and 2:01, respectively, in the second period. Hodge put the Bruins back in the game with his first goal at 10:15. His second came at 13:21 with the Canadiens shorthanded. Provost wound it up at 7:06 of the third.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A YOUNG COLLEGE grad, rated for three successive years as one of America's top ten tennis players, wound up as a specialist-four at an army camp in Kansas. There, unheralded, he entered a tennis tournament at the post, and on his way to the championship, bumped off in turn a captain, a major, and a colonel. Accepting the cup, he nodded appreciatively and confessed, "Any day now I expect orders for Viet Nam!"

George Burns tells about a pair of veteran vaudevillians who realized a life-long dream in the twilight of their careers. They were booked at the famous Palace Theatre in New York! On the same bill with them was the great matinee idol, John Barrymore. They approached Barrymore differently after the Monday matinee, and invited him to have a drink with them. "Not today," Barrymore begged off. "I've lost my mother and I'm desolate."

"We know just how you feel," sympathized the female member of the team, "We just lost our trunk."

Joe E. Lewis, greatest of the night club comics, began his career in joints owned and managed by mobsters. "At the first place I worked," recalls Lewis, "the boss used to shoot you good night."

Lewis pooh-poohs doctors who urge him to stop drinking. "Never," he vows. "I know lots more old drunks than I know old doctors."

DEAR ABBY:

Kid sis's triangle hints Make others miserable

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
 DEAR ABBY: I never thought I'd be writing to you, but I guess everybody says that.

My 17-year-old sister was having problems at home in the East so my husband and I let her come live with us and our two children as we have plenty of room.

She gave me nothing but trouble from the beginning with late hours, and borrowing the car. She was graduated from high school here, and married a real bum. Anyway, she came over one day last week and started telling me how "cozy" she had been with my husband while she lived here. She said she didn't tell me at the time because she was afraid I would send her back East.

My husband is young and good looking and craves affection, but I never dreamed he'd touch a 17-year-old kid who always looked like a slob, and would probably tell me about it.

I questioned my husband; he said she was lying. I got them together and they both swore on a Bible the other was lying. Who should I believe? I am going crazy. I've never mistrusted my husband before, but why should my sister want to lie to me? Can't Sleep husband. Your kid sister is probably miserable, and misery loves company.

DEAR CAN'T: Believe you

DEAR ABBY: Right now my 8-year-old daughter is sitting in her room sulking. Why? Because I won't buy her a brassiere! Take my word for it, she has nothing to put in it, but she wants one anyway. She says all her friends wear them. I've seen her friends and I wouldn't know why any of them would be wearing a brassiere.

Should I give in and buy her one just to improve her disposition. Waterloo Mother

DEAR MOTHER: Mothers who give in to improve their children's dispositions are letting themselves in for an endless improvement program. Tell your 8-year-old kid that when she needs a brassiere, you'll buy her one — but not until.

DEAR ABBY: A very good friend of mine promised her husband she'd quit smoking. She did, but now she chews tobacco instead, which I think is even worse. It's bad enough to see a man chewing, but a chewing woman is a disgrace. She claims a lot of women chew tobacco, but nobody knows it because they don't spit in public and they are careful not to let the tobacco juice gather in the corners of their mouth or "drool" like men do.

I have told her she wasn't fooling anybody, they know she is chewing, but she insists I'm wrong. I fear she has the habit so bad she can't quit. Will you please ask your readers to pray for her? Lucy

DEAR LUCY: The whole world could pray for her but unless the Lord has her cooperation, she'll continue to chew.

DEAR ABBY: I am 25 and single. Two years ago I decided that virginity was a thing of the past. During that time, all my relationships with men have been the same: Interest at first, then the sexual relationship, then a brief period of "going together." After that a gradual decline of interest, complaints about finances, fewer dates, and finally the desire to "be free." The average length of the relationship: Two months.

I finally figured out that no matter how aggressive a guy is, he still wants a girl to hold out. And why not? Once you've slept with someone, what is there left to find out about them?

So now I'm being "good," not because of morals but because it's smart. After all, I want to get married some day, not be a service station all my life. "Both Sides Now"

DR. BROTHERS:

Couple in middle fifties Faces marital adjustment

By DR. JOYCE BROTHERS

Dear Dr. Brothers: My husband and I are both in our middle fifties. I can't remember when our sex life started to go bad, but I'm certainly not happy with the way things are now. During the week he works hard and is practically asleep in his chair by the time the late evening news is on. The only time he gets romantic is after we've been to a party and he's had a few drinks.—I.R.

Dear Mrs. R.: Some decline in the frequency of sexual relations in marriage is to be expected with increasing age. While physical factors may be responsible, other problems such as stress, preoccupation, fatigue, or simple boredom are likely to be involved.

Some women experience an increase in sexual interest following the menopause while middle-aged men are trying to cope with a diminished potency.

This difference can cause problems in an otherwise satisfactory marriage. Both the husband and the wife may be afraid to discuss the issue with each other, fearing that their concern will be interpreted as criticism and further compound the tension.

A wife who is preoccupied with the effects of age, fearing her loss of feminine charm, may seek to gain reassurance of her continued desirability in the marital bed. Her husband may feel pressured and resentful of her increasing demands for sex and attention.

Some women particularly dislike the attentions of their husband if they know he has been drinking, even if he is not actually intoxicated.

In some cases, the husband's drinking is capitalized upon, the wife using it as an excuse to reject the advances of her husband. And, of course, the heavy drinker, may find his sexual capabilities undermined by alcoholic excess. But, for some men, a moderate amount of alcohol serves as an inhibition reducing agent.

Every couple should strive for frankness and mutual sympathy in times of sexual difficulties. Periods of sexual maladjustment occur in most marriages. Try to talk to your husband about your feelings and attempt to discover a more satisfactory pattern for your sexual relations.

"The Mate Too Tired for Love" is the title of a leaflet by Dr. Brothers that may contain clues to what's wrong with your marriage. For a copy send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Dr. Joyce Brothers, in care of The Press.

YOUR HEALTH:

Women past age of 35 Must face fears, myths

By DR. LESTER COLEMAN

Many women past the age of 35 live with expressed and unexpressed fears about the approach of the menopause or change of life. Much of the unnecessary anxiety is based on the fact that false information and myths have been handed down from generation to generation about this period in a woman's life.

The word menopause is derived from the Greek "menos" meaning month and "pauin" meaning to cease. Menopause, therefore, is that period of normal change when menstruation slows down and finally ceases during middle age. The age varies with each individual woman and has been known to vary in different geographic areas. In some cases symptoms of change of life have occurred as early as 30 years of age, while in others they may not appear until past 50.

Sudden episodes of hot flashes and unexplained perspiration, with restlessness and fatigue are known to occur during this stage and often may alter the emotional stability of the woman. The psychological overtones are particularly severe when women falsely believe that their attractiveness, sexuality, and general health will be impaired by the onset of the menopause.

The symptoms of change of life are due to a temporary imbalance or a deficiency of the hormones produced by the ovaries and other endocrine glands. Estrogen the female hormone, is now being used extensively by a great many physicians to supplement the lagging production of this hormone during the menopause period.

The decision to use this hormone, of course, depends on the physician's findings in each particular case. Since the emotions are intimately involved with all bodily changes, it is wise for women to thoroughly discuss the problem of the menopause with their doctor to avoid the pitfalls of anxiety so frequent at the time of this change of life. It frequently comes as a surprise that many women flourish emotionally and physically when they gracefully mature into the menopause.

Shows to watch

"The Japanese" — (SPECIAL); 10 p.m. Ch. 2 — A look at Japan and its people through the eyes of former U.S. Ambassador Edwin Reischauer, CBS newsmen Perry Wolff and former Tokyo correspondent Igor Ogenesoff. Reischauer, now professor of Oriental studies at Harvard, narrates. A Japanese family, which was shopping in a department store, was singled out for the documentary. The Imaizumi family is shown at home, at work, in the city's nightclubs and with the children at school. Also seen are Japanese baths, a puppet theater, a rice farm and samples of TV variety shows.

On Stage — (SPECIAL); 9 p.m. Ch. 4 — "This Town Will Never Be the Same." Barry Sullivan, E.G. Marshall, John Beal and Vincent Gardenia star in the story of a collapsing newspaper and its effect on both the staff and the town. The growing deficits of the paper and the insistent demands of the union make continuance impossible. This is the fifth in a series of dramatic specials and one of the few prestige hours left.

"John Goldfarb, Please Come Home"; 9 p.m. Ch. 7 — Shirley MacLaine, Peter Ustinov and Richard Crenna star in a farce comedy about a girl photographer infiltrating a king's domain to get an inside story on harem life. Seems that Ustinov, who plays the king, has a fondness for trains — toy trains — and wants more than anything to beat Notre Dame in football, and, well, you get the picture? Repeat of a 1965 movie.

The Virginian: 7:30 p.m. Ch. 4 — Repeat of the episode which introduced David Hartman as a regular in the role of David Sutton, a medical school dropout who drifts West, winding up at Shiloh. (Hartman will star in The Bold Ones series in the fall.) "Greenhorn" Sutton finds learning the ropes a tough challenge.

TEEN DATELINE:

Friends spoil blind guest

By ELE and WALT DULANEY

Dear Walt: I have a friend who brings records to our parties. Fine. He expects everyone to listen with full attention. Fine. This sometimes goes on for 30 minutes. Not so fine. When other people play their records, he talks and tells jokes. Not so fine. I could tell him he's doing wrong but he is blind. What can I do to make him more considerate? — Jerry

Dear Jerry: You do your blind friend a disservice to treat him differently from sighted people. Such allowances will shape a selfish boy who will be shunned in a new school or community.

Tell him privately: (1) A party evening is set up for personal interaction rather than spectator status. People will enjoy concentrating on music for five minutes. After that they start to fidget and want the music to serve as background to their person-to-person pleasure.

(2) Point out that he can't ask others to pay attention to his music if he's not willing to lend an ear in return to their records. Otherwise it rings "Me king, you peasants."

By giving it to him honestly, you'll do him a great kindness. Be sure to add, "People do like your jokes and fun; it's just this one thing that bugs them." — Walt

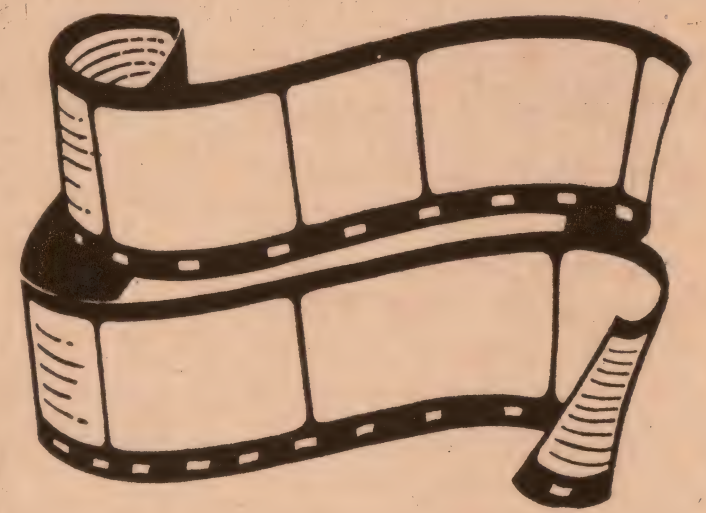

Dear Ele: Is it true that taking an aspirin with a cola will make you sexual? I have heard this lots of times and now I sort of worry everytime somebody hands me a coke with lots of ice in it. — Rita

Dear Rita: That's a fable and nothing more. Cola and aspirin have no aphrodisiac action. The only "turn on" they could affect would be if a girl purposely took the combination anticipating she would suddenly turn wanton. Then it would be her mind rather than the drink that affected her. — Ele

Dear Walt: Say you know something about a boy who's going to run against you for a school office, and it's something that would make people put him down and not vote for him. But it's nothing that would affect the way he could do the job of the office. Would it be really wrong if you let people know about it? — Barker

Dear Barker: The best way to measure the right and wrong of such a proposition is to simply substitute yourself for the boy in question. If tables were turned, would you think an opponent had the right to challenge anything except your ability to handle the duties of the office? I don't. — Walt

Life & Leisure: A guide for dedicated sun-lovers

What's at the movies tonight

CAMELOT: The lavish film fantasia of the knights and ladies of this best loved of all storybook kingdoms. Spectacular scenes, sumptuous costuming and a sensationally sing-alongable score — what could be bad? —Martha Washington

BULLITT: Director Peter Yates has taken two movie clichés — the grimy honest cop in a corrupt world and one-dimensional "star" Steve McQueen — and made them both work. (M) — Quo Vadis Penthouse II

DUFFY: When daddy plans a million pound gold shipment, his none-too-affectionate sons enlist the aid of their good friend Duffy in a plan to hijack the floating treasure. Tables turn more than once in this slick caper, with James Coburn, James Fox and company carrying it off far better than the uninspired script deserves. —Wayne Drive-in

WHERE EAGLES DARE: Richard Burton and Clint Eastwood are the only big names in this high-powered war story, but the film is nevertheless headed for a spot not claimed since "The Great Escape." Basically the story of a group of experts assigned to rescue a general from the Nazis, it is so suspensefully complicated that one never knows what lies beyond the next twist. The genre is redeemed, and the real adventure-monger is vindicated. (M) — Fox Village, Quo Vadis

HELL IN THE PACIFIC: Lee Marvin and Toshiko Mi-fune star as an American marine and a Japanese officer marooned on the same desert island to fight a microcosmic version of WWII. The producers have admirably resisted fairytale transformations, but they have also foregone any other significant character development. Two fine actors are frozen in a tableau of visual antagonism — a good still, but hardly a full-length motion picture. —Michigan

IRMA LA DOUCE: Shirley MacLaine and Jack Lemmon star in this light-hearted classic about a "Prostitute with a heart of gold." Despite the thickish subject matter, there's no reason why it shouldn't be a fun family evening. —Ypsi-Ann Drive-in

WHO'S AFRAID OF VIRGINIA WOOLF? The Burton's are at their magnificent best in this brutal psychodrama about a middle-aged couple inextricably bound in delusion and self-destruction. Under Mike Nichols' sure direction, the piece loses little in its transition from the stage, and even those who saw the play will find the film a new, and exciting experience. —Willow Drive-in

THE PINK JUNGLE: Fast and glib adventure-comedy involving lost diamond mines, revolutionaries, a friendly hijacker and, of course, a blooming romance that develops at about the same pace as the rest of the story line. James Garner and Eva Renzi do their bit for the cause of escape entertainment. —University Drive-in

PRUDENCE AND THE PILL: Blythe Diller romanticizes all about the new morality spawned by the introduction of The Pill into American society. A potentially risqué subject, the title might well be descriptive of the producers' attack; the film is solidly in the Doris Day school of mostly bluff. —Algier's Drive-in

THE FOX: Sandy Dennis, Anne Heywood and Keir Dullea turn in fine performances as the participants in a slightly macabre love triangle. The film distorts the original Lawrence story with an unnecessary emphasis on the more sordid aspects of the pervading sexual tension, but it is handled well enough to become a viable artistic alternative. —Willow Drive-in

THE BIG BOUNCE: Domestic sex melees seemingly centering around a youthful psychotic who does groovy things like fornicate on cemetery slabs and smash windows. Physical production sets a vulgar low, dialogue is worse and acting crummier still. The heroine's up-finger salute at the grand finale seems a fitting comment on the whole film. On a double bill with "Harper." —State-Wayne

THE NIGHT THEY RAID-ED MINSKY'S: A nostalgic tribute to the early days of burlesque, no less engaging for the fact that it shows the seamy, as well as the glittery, side of the theater of the 20's. Combining documentary film clip, a slapstick plot, and an excellent score, "Minsky's" may well be the musical success of the year. —Ypsi-Ann Drive-in

PLAY DIRTY: War is hell, right; and the squadron of junkies, homosexuals and thieves that make up this allied mission are demonic enough to make Rommel's rats look almost good by comparison. With so much dirtiness around, it's only natural that the picture would come out smelling a bit, too. —Wayside

2001: A SPACE ODYSSEY: Spectacular cinema effects have made Stanley Kubrick's futuristic epic one of the most well-deserved hits of the season. The relative absence of dialogue and narrative only increases the visual magnificence of a film which challenges all the unique possibilities of the film media. (G) — Quo Vadis Penthouse I

ANGEL IN MY POCKET: Andy Griffith plays his guileless homespun self in this tale of a newly-ordained minister whose first post lands him in the middle of a town feud which threatens to bring down the church. It's a well-worn story; but it's the few films left for family funny and human and one of consumption. (G)

JOANNA: A very modern movie about a very contemporary girl who's pretty and adventurous and sleeps with a lot of different men because she likes them. There are no moral judgments here, not even any philosophical comments; just a story about people which is charming and happy simply because it doesn't pretend to be anything else, and bold and exciting because real people are. —Fifth Forum

CHARLY: Sensitive story of a mentally-retarded man given a second chance by a miraculous brain operation, and eventually plunged back into darkness when the new advance proves temporary. An easy candidate for embarrassing bathos, the film is saved by dedicated low-key direction and Cliff Robertson's almost loving portrayal of the ill-fated hero. (G) — La Parisen

WRECKING CREW: Dean Martin dredges up agent Matt Helm for a second outing, this time in pursuit of a billion-dollar shipment of hi-jacked gold. Dean sings spoofs and sexes it up a bit with Elke Summer, Nancy Kwan and Tina Louise to turn out a film remarkable only for the fact that it doesn't even pretend to be anything more than a rerun of earlier Dino efforts. —Wayne Drive-in SUPPORT YOUR LOCAL SHERIFF: A Western to end all Westerns... and it probably will, as it methodically reduces all the standard genre clichés to utter hilarity. James Garner plays the "stranger," Walter Brennan, "the vicious outlaw" and Joan Hackett, "the sweet young thing" in a film which is really too witty and sophisticated to claim a 'G' rating—State-

Richard Crenna and Shirley MacLaine star in the hodge-podge of polygamy, football and the C.I.A. which is "John Goldfarb, Please Come Home," to-night at 9 on Change 7.

Theater

THE ROSE TATTOO: Tennessee Williams' powerful story of a woman widowed and betrayed, but determined to find a means of self fulfillment. Produced by the Ann Arbor Civic Theater. —Lydia Mendelsohn Theater, S. Ingalls, Ann Arbor; 8 p.m. curtain, Sunday at 7 and 10 p.m.; tickets from $1.50 to $2.50

THE VISIT: Friedrich Schlegel's chilling story of the wealthiest woman in the world who returns to her hometown to offer a million dollar gift... in exchange for a single human life. The last play to join the Hilberry repertory, this is one of the great classics of the modern theater. —Hilberry Classic Theater, WSU, Detroit; 8:30 p.m. curtain, Saturday matinees at 2:30 p.m.; tickets from $2 to $3

TROILUS AND CRESSIDA: Shakespeare's drama of the ill-fated lovers torn by both historical circumstance and human frailty. One of the Bard's greatest romances, the production will replace the "Hamlet" originally scheduled by the John Fernald Company. —Meadow Brook Theater, Oakland University, Rochester; 8:15 p.m. curtain, Sunday at 2 and 6:30 p.m.; tickets from $2 to $5

DON'T DRINK THE WATER: Sam Levene takes the title role in Woody Allen's zany farce about a shutter-happy New Jersey tourist hunted by the espionage police of the Iron Curtain country he has recently immortalized in film. Most emphatically Alleneque —Fisher Theater, Detroit; through April 26 with 8:30 p.m. shows Monday through Saturday, 2 p.m. matinees Wednesday and Saturday, tickets from $3 to $6

GROUP RATE TICKETS for "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown" at the Fisher Theater in Detroit are being offered by the Alumni Office at EMU. The great Horseshoe Falls will be better than ever (the water from the American Falls is being diverted in that direction) but the crest and rapids of its sister cataract will be open to full view for the first time. TV documentary:

Little light shed On campus riots

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Wire
NEW YORK (AP) — The third in NBC's series on "The Ordeal of the American City" Tuesday night attempted to make some sense out of the dismaying and frightening disturbances afflicting many of the nation's colleges. It may have released some heat, but precious little light.

The 90-minute program had frightening, effective film footage of the turbulence at San Francisco State College. There was also some introspective talk by a teacher who stuck with the establishment in crisis and more from a compulsively outgoing colleague who joined the strikers.

But what remains murky to the television viewer who has sat through the nightly news shows and all the assorted documentary treatments including the most recent is the real cause of the trouble. Is it professional trouble makers? Is it a fad like panty raids? Or is there something real and valid at its base? We hear the dissenters make their demands, hear the sociologists speak of the anger and impatience of the ghettos.

But what appears on our screens seem to be an assortment of youthful show-offs most often dressed as if they were going to attend a masquerade party and chanting insulting jargon and, when questioned, making little sense. All of them seem to enjoy their brief moments in the TV sun.

Then, via tape, we are taken over the familiar rounds of the other side—the college administrators. But we hear little or nothing from the vast majority of students who are keeping away from the trouble centers and the cameras. There is little reflection of the public's attitudes, which must be undergoing some hardening.

Television news shows have the responsibility of covering current events. Television documentaries must do more. It may be the current crop about collegiate turmoil have jumped in too soon with too little to illuminate the screen.

NBC's major effort showed primarily film and taped on one college's troubles and it succeeded, unintentionally to be sure, in further confounding some viewers and angering more.

It may have tried to enlighten us but some of us came away with a feeling of sympathy for the San Francisco cops who had to wade into the unruly, insult-shouting mob.

Later, on CBS's "60 Minutes" there were refreshing excerpts from an astonishingly frank and perhaps indiscreet interview by Alice Roosevelt Longworth given months ago to a British journalist for broadcast in England.

Mrs. Longworth, now 85, is the daughter of President Theodore Roosevelt but visited the White House—"hideous," she said—first when Harrison was president. As the president's daughter she smoked in the early 1900s—"a scarlet woman," they thought then.

She described her distant cousin Eleanor Roosevelt as "frightfully earnest and given to good deeds," and even talked about what she called "the boy-meets-girl sort of thing" between Franklin D. Roosevelt and Lucy Mercer. Mrs. Longworth should have a nice little Washington-based TV show of her own.

Recommended tonight: "This Town Will Never Be the Same," NBC, 9-10 EST, newspaper drama with Barry Sullivan and E.G. Marshall. "The Japanese," CBS, 10-11, study of the oriental character and mores.

Marriage breaks up

Their marriage kept secret until the birth of the first of their two daughters, singer Eddie Fisher and actress Connie Stevens are getting a divorce. Shown in happier days, the 41-year-old Fisher charged "extreme cruelty" in filing for the divorce from his third wife in Santa Monica Superior Court yesterday. The marriage has been the second for Miss Stevens. (AP Photo)

DST proposed year-round

Fast Time starts Sunday for rest of nation

WASHINGTON (AP) — There are those to whom the annual switchover to Daylight Saving Time brings little light and no joy.

There are also those who—in the name of crime prevention and other claimed benefits would have the government double the time ante and give the nation an extra hour of afternoon daylight all year round.

But in Michigan — where the proposal was narrowly defeated at the polls—more people will be happy with the switch than unhappy, if the results of the vote can be thus interpreted.

The issue fell in November voting and a subsequent recount of key precincts failed to overturn the decision.

Files at the Department of Transportation, which sets the nation's time guidelines, are bulging with letters from people who, in the words of one aide, "all have their own magic potion for dealing with time, and a lot of other problems as well."

The department is charged with implementing the law which now calls for uniform daylight saving six months of the year.

Several pending House and Senate bills would change that span at one or the other end of the period which now runs from the last Sunday in April to the last Sunday in October.

At least one bill, by Rep. Craig Hosmer, R-Calif., would make daylight saving a year-round affair.

In a letter to the White House last year a Baltimore doctor endorsed the idea and gave this prescription for reducing crime:

"High intensity lighting has proven to be the best deterrent to crime. Even though the thief becomes more brazen every day, he still operates better in darkness and shadow. What we need then is more light!"

Hosmer, declaring that permanent daylight saving was first proposed by Benjamin Franklin in 1784, says an extra hour of afternoon light would provide more outdoor leisure for adults and more playtime for children in fall and winter.

He too has been promoting the step as an anticrime measure. He says also it would save on electric bills.

Committee Chairman's Bill slashed

LANSING (AP) — The Senate Appropriations Committee was expected today to report out a state school aid bill boosting Gov. William Milliken's "sacrosanct" recommendations by only $271,000.

The proposal would slash some $4.73 million from a measure offered by Senate Education Committee Chairman Anthony Stamm, R-Kalamazoo.

It falls far short of the more than $900 million appropriation proposed by Democratic Rep. Lucille McCollough of Dearborn, chairman of the House Education Committee.

Democratic House officials have, however, indicated little hope for passage of that bill, saying it would require "bipartisan cooperation" which they don't expect to get.

The rewritten Senate proposal, authored by appropriations committee chairman Charles O. Zollar, R-Benton Harbor, would rearrange several of Milliken's priorities, increasing his recommendations for basic school aid and "high tax levy" district monies.

It also would add to his proposals for programs to aid the underprivileged. Other changes would cut Milliken's recommendations for special education and remedial reading programs.

Zollar said cuts in the education committee proposal had to be made because the state does not have the revenue to add to Milliken's budget.

The governor has urged implementation of his recommendations, an $85 million increase over last year's school spending, and announced plans to seek complete educational reform in the fall.

Senate Democrats viewed action of their Republican colleagues as an attempt to hold the line on Milliken's budget proposal and carry out his wishes.

"They're trying to keep the governor's budget at his level," said Senate Minority Leader Sander Levin, D-Detroit. "They want to act before the House can go to work on any increased measure."

Democrats caucused on the school aid bill Tuesday, but failed to take a unified position. Levin said some would find the Republican proposal "unacceptable," but indicated dissent among other Democrats.

Levin and Democratic Sens. Coleman Young of Detroit and James Gray of Warren assailed the initial Republican proposal because they said it failed to meet the needs of urban areas.

Senate Majority Leader Emil Lockwood, R-St. Louis, has said a vote could come by Friday on the school aid bill.

Meanwhile, House Appropriations Committee Chairman William Copeland, D-Wyandotte, planned work today or Thursday on the Lower chamber's version of school aid.

Copeland, irritated by early Senate action which breaks with the longstanding tradition that the school aid bill initiate in the House, has said the Senate bill—if passed—would go "the bottom of the pile" in measures to be considered by his committee.

Nixon reforms challenged For not going far enough

WASHINGTON (AP) — The top Republican and Democratic members of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee both say President Nixon's tax reform proposals do not go far enough in eliminating tax shelters for the very rich.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., and the committee's ranking Republican, Wisconsin Rep. John W. Byrnes, said what is needed is the removal of exemptions and loopholes that allow some wealthy persons to avoid paying any federal income tax.

Nixon, they said, merely wants to limit the use of such tax shelters, not purge them from the tax structure.

They raised the issue Tuesday as Treasury Undersecretary Charles E. Walker and assistant secretary Edwin S. Cohen went before the committee to begin detailing what was emphasized as the administration's interim tax program.

Initial reaction from the committee, which passes on all tax bills, appeared favorable to two major elements of the program — halving the income surtax next year and repeal of the 7 per cent business investment credit.

These two issues are assured prompt consideration because the 10 per cent surtax is to expire completely June 30 unless Congress acts and Mills wants to link consideration of the surtax extension with repeal of the investment credit.

In discussing the advantages now enjoyed by high income earners, Mills indicated Nixon was timid in failing to call for an end to tax shelters.

"There is a momentum for change," Mills said. "I want us to act while this momentum exists, while taxpayers still remember what they paid on April 15."

Mills questioned the administration witnesses as to why they had not given more weight to the reduced tax on capital gains in drawing their interim proposals on tax shelters.

Walker and Cohen said change in capital gains taxation would be a fundamental one, and the treasury is including it in the basic study Nixon has asked to be completed by Nov. 30.

Mills indicated to newsmen, however, that he will go into the subject before then. He has set an early August target date for House passage of a reform bill.

He said consideration of taxation on capital gains—profit made on sale of an asset—should include the possibility of varying the tax according to the length of time it is held and also the kind of property involved.

He said it is hard to justify taxing the profits on the sale of stock held for six months—the minimum period—in the same manner as the gain on a once-in-a-lifetime sale of a residence or a family business that may have been held for decades.

First-class mail Hike proposed As budget savior

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the Senate Post Office Committee says President Nixon's proposed one cent hike in first class mail rates is a scheme "to get the administration out of a budget bind."

"As I understand it," Sen. Gale W. McGee said in an interview, revenue from the boost from 6 to 7 cents "will not necessarily improve mail service at all. It will go largely to pay for capital improvements which should be financed by the government's general revenues."

However, Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said he agrees with the administration that the hike, included in a $611-million postal rate increase proposal, is necessary.

Dirksen said if McGee's committee doesn't approve the bill, he might attach it as a rider to some unrelated legislation.

When the bill is filed and when administration plans for revision of postal operations are clearer, McGee said, he'll hold hearings on the request.

McGee also said he was disappointed in Postmaster Gen. Winton M. Blount's testimony Monday before the Senate appropriations subcommittee on the Post Office's budget requests.

"We have heard lots of statements from the new administration about how it was going to institute business practices in the Postoffice Department," he said.

"Yet when they presented their budget it turned out to be the same old thing."

McGee also emphasized that the last increase in the first class rate, from 5 to 6 cents, took place only little more than a year ago.

Sirhan Verdict Still due

LOS ANGELES (AP) — For 70 days the jurors in the Sirhan Bishara Sirhan trial have eaten together, relaxed together, slept in the same hotel and even agreed on a first degree murder verdict. But so far they obviously can't agree whether Sirhan shall live or die for murdering Robert F. Kennedy.

For 2½ hours Monday and 6½ Tuesday, the seven men and five women discussed the penalty without coming to a consensus—raising a small spectre of a hung jury in a trial that has lasted more than 15 weeks.

The deliberations were to start again at 8 a.m. today.

"I'm concerned about it," said Grant B. Cooper, the chief defense counsel, who sweated out the verdict in the courtroom. "Either a minority or a majority are voting for death."

Cooper had asked for a verdict of second degree murder—which carries a penalty of five years to life. After the jury voted first degree after 3½ days of deliberation, he pleaded that Sirhan's life be spared.

In California law, the jury decides the penalty for first degree murder with only two choices, life or death.

Should the jury report itself hopelessly deadlocked, the judge can himself impose the lesser penalty—life in prison. Or he can impanel a new jury for the penalty phase, requiring new presentation of evidence, more arguments.

Hospital Authority Agenda set

The board of the Peoples Community Hospital Authority will consider the renewal of Dr. Karl S. Klicka's contract as executive director of the PCHA in its meeting Thursday night.

The board also will discuss Eastern Michigan University's new committee on nursing education.

Dr. Klicka has been named to the committee by Dr. Ronald M. Scott, chairman and head of EMU's Department of Chemistry.

EMU is studying a proposed school of nursing.

Dr. Klicka's appointment arises from its affiliation with EMU in the proposed program under which PCHA hospitals would provide the clinical facilities.

Other members of the study group, all from EMU, are Dr. Dennis Burke of the Division of Health Services, Mrs. M. Ferzack of the Health Service staff, and Mrs. Pearl Dimattia of the Biology Department.

Once approval has been granted by both the PCHA and EMU boards, the committee will begin hiring a staff and preparing the clinical portions of the program.

River residents Keep eye on dikes

By the Associated Press

Residents along the Mississippi River in Iowa and Illinois maintained patrols on dikes and levees today as one of the highest flood crests of the century rolled southward.

The Mississippi was above flood stage from Libby, Minn., to Cape Girardeau, Mo. The crest was expected to reach Prairie du Chien, Wis., today and Dubuque, Iowa, Saturday.

The Weather Bureau said the river would crest at 6.6 feet above flood stage at Dubuque.

Most riverside communities were confident that reinforced defense systems would save them from the spring flooding that has already caused an estimated $49 million damage to the north.

But the Army Corps of Engineers urged constant vigilance over the seawalls, heightened levees, emergency dikes and drainage areas and warned the most dangerous period was yet to come.

The aftermath of the crest would be critical, it said, because the earthen levees, weakened by river pressures, would be vulnerable to softening.

Some communities still have not fully recovered from the worst Mississippi flood on record, in 1965, when 38,000 persons fled their homes and damage mounted to $150 million.

In Minot, N.D., where the overflowing, Souris River earlier had sliced the community in two, the waters pushed through a plugged culvert Tuesday, flooding an additional 100 homes.

One-third of the town's 35,000 residents already had been evacuated, but officials removed many more because of the leak beneath the Soo Line rail tracks. Army engineers used rock, clay and sandbags to stem the flow.

Overflows subsided on some tributaries of the Mississippi, particularly the Minnesota and the Des Moines. But only the Big Sioux of South Dakota had returned from flood stage and returned to its banks.

The crest on the northward-flowing Red River, which expanded to an 8-by-150 mile lake along the Minnesota-North Dakota border, surged toward Pembina, northernmost city below Canada.

In Wisconsin, the Mississippi was receding at La Crosse and points upstream and officials reported the situation under control.

The Weather Bureau flood control center in Hartford, Conn., predicted rain and issued flash flood warnings

WCC moves Another step For accreditation

By NANCY ABNER
Of The Press Staff

Wayne County Community College has advanced one more step towards receiving accreditation from the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the WCC Board of Trustees were told last night.

The 3-year-old institution, after submitting a faculty-written "status study" to the association, was recently granted a "recognized candidate status" received a May 1, 1972, deadline for submitting a "self study" for final accreditation review.

Faculty members Fred Wolven and Roger Bertoia said that the North Central Association review committee had cited two needed improvements in WCC operations:

—Revamping of administrative structure on a "more direct line basis." According to Bertoia the committee pointed out that "there is good horizontal communication but poor vertical communication" among various levels of administration.

—Developing improved communications between WCC faculty and administration.

After a faculty committee submits the WCC self study to the Association, within a few months a team from the accreditation group will visit the school to make a final review.

Bertoia said that this final decision on WCC's approval for accreditation would come in four years from now at the latest.

At their regular monthly meeting, devoted mainly to discussing the WCC 1969-70 budget presented last week, the trustees also considered the Wayne County Community College Board of Trustees' request that WCC set up an extension in western Wayne County.

The WCC Board of Trustees last night re-iterated an earlier position that due to the college's proximity to Wayne County (1.5 miles) and in light of its current campus expansion plans, operating an extension in Wayne County would not be in the school's best interests.

Add a maximum of $10,400.00 to your health protection for only 25¢

★ Pays you extra cash at the rate of $100.00 a week for as long as 2 full years... for each hospital stay. ★ Guaranteed renewable for life. At last—a hospital plan that guarantees never to cancel your protection no matter how old you get or how many claims you make ★ Pays all cash direct to you (not to the doctor or hospital) ★ Pays in addition to any other companies' coverage you have—including Medicare ★ No age limit—no medical examination required ★ No salesman will call

Just 25¢ enrolls your entire family for the first month

ACT NOW—YOUR ENROLLMENT-APPLICATION MUST BE MAILED BY MIDNIGHT SAT., APRIL 26, OR IT CANNOT BE ACCEPTED

ONE out of two families will have someone in the hospital this year! It could be you—or some beloved member of your family tomorrow... next week... next month. Sad to say, very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have doubled in just a few short years. They are expected to double again in the few years ahead.

Stop for a moment. Think how much a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly, but necessary, X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? What would you do if your pay check stopped, but living expenses kept on going the same as ever? The same rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop.

What is the average breadwinner to do? We believe we have the answer in the famous Presidential Extra Cash Hospital Plan that ... Pays you $100.00-a-week tax-free cash whenever you are hospitalized.

What a blessing it is when you know you have an extra $100.00 cash coming in every week—beginning the very first day you enter the hospital.

Now, Presidential's economy plan enables you to enjoy this protection at once. Because it will NOT cost you $20.00. It will NOT cost you $10.00—or even $5.00. Your special low price is just 25¢ for the first month's coverage for your entire family. Then continue at regular low Presidential rates.

The added protection you NEED!

All benefits of this Presidential $100.00-A-WEEK Hospital Plan are paid directly to you, in tax-free cash, in addition to whatever you may receive from your insurance with any other company! Spend the money as you see fit—for hospital or doctor bills, mortgage payments—or any necessary but costly extras not fully covered by usual hospital policies.

Everything costs more these days (need we tell you?) and hospital care is certainly no exception! While 7 out of 8 Americans have some hospital insurance, most have found it does not cover all bills that pile up when sickness or accident strikes. That's why Presidential developed low-cost Extra Cash protection that helps you pay hospital costs or other expenses!

You get your $100.00 per week—TAX FREE—from your first day in the hospital, and as long as you are confined there, even for 2 years, if necessary. And, when you and your insured spouse are hospitalized at the same time for an accidental injury, Presidential pays out an EXTRAORDINARY DOUBLE CASH BENEFIT. You receive not $100.00, but $200.00 a week. Your spouse receives not $100.00, but $200.00 a week. That's $100.00 in all, in cash payments to you every week while you both remain in the hospital... even for as long as 2 whole years!

For older folks—greater protection than you ever would have thought possible!

Right now, would advancing age prevent you from getting hospital insurance, or income protection with another company? Or if you could get a policy elsewhere, would you have to

- PAYS up to $10,400.00 CASH for each accident or illness, starting the very first day in the hospital.
- PAYS up to $10,010.00 CASH if you're 65 or over—at the rate of $70.00 A WEEK for first 13 weeks, and a full $100.00 weekly while you remain in the hospital thereafter, (for 91 weeks if necessary)... in addition to whatever benefits you receive from Medicare.
- PAYS up to $41,600.00 CASH when both husband and wife are hospitalized at same time for accidental injury, for as long as both remain in the hospital—at the rate of $400.00 A WEEK.
- PAYS up to $2,000.00 CASH for complete accidental loss of limbs or eyesight.
- PAYS $100.00-A-WEEK CASH for each pregnancy requiring a hospital stay, when both husband and wife are insured for the entire pregnancy and have Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits.
- PAYS up to $6,240.00 at the rate of $60.00 A WEEK when a child goes to the hospital for any accident or illness (when Coverage for Children has been added to the basic plan).
- NO age limit—no medical examination required—no salesman will call.

LICENSED BY THE STATE OF MICHIGAN

IF YOU ARE 65 OR OVER YOU WILL COLLECT UP TO $10,010.00 CASH IN ADDITION TO MEDICARE BENEFITS

Why are smart folks over 65 now hastening to protect themselves with the Presidential Extra Cash Plan in addition to what Medicare will do for them?

Even though Medicare is a great boon to folks over 65, it will not, of course, pay all the bills that quickly pile up as a result of illness or accident.

Regardless of your age, you still need additional health protection.

We have designed this plan as the important addition to whatever is paid by Medicare—or health insurance you may have in any other company. Remember, all checks will be sent directly to you (not to the doctor or hospital), to give you that "extra" help just when you need it most. Use the tax-free cash any way you see fit. And you will be glad to know the checks will be big ones! In addition to what is paid by Medicare, Presidential pays you $70.00 a week for first 13 weeks, and a full $100.00 weekly while hospitalized thereafter... for an additional 91 weeks, if necessary! You can receive as much as $10,010.00 for each new illness or injury when hospitalized!

pay a big premium for it? Your "life saver" could be this wonderful Presidential Extra Cash Plan—because Presidential welcomes folks of all ages into its Plan. Even if you're 65 or over, even if you're OVER 100—when you go to the hospital you collect $70.00 a week for 13 weeks and a full $100.00 weekly while you remain in the hospital afterwards... even for as long as 2 years!

We can never cancel your policy!

And you can count on Presidential's wonderful protection no matter how old you get or how many times you collect from us. It is written into your policy that we cannot cancel your protection after you've made a lot of claims, or become old—or both. It is GUARANTEED RENEWABLE FOR LIFE!

And that's not all. Suppose you have a growing family—this special Presidential Plan (HP 35L-868)...

... Pays you $100.00-a-week cash maternity benefits!

Ordinary hospital insurance may take care of part of your expenses when you go to the hospital to have a baby. But what policy can you think of that gives you cash to help buy all the things you need for the new baby? Now, if both husband and wife are insured for the entire pregnancy and have added Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits, you get extra cash to use any way you want. If a pregnancy, childbirth or even miscarriage puts you in the hospital for one day, five days, 10 days—as long as necessary—you get $100.00 a week for every day of your confinement, up to 2 years if necessary!

All these added cash benefits.

Yes, in addition to $100.00 a week for hospitalization or $100.00 a week maternity benefits... you get all this: Added cash benefits: Up to $2,000.00 cash for accidental loss of limbs or eyesight, when the loss occurs anytime within 90 days of the accident. The loss of a limb or eyesight is a terrible thing. Nothing can replace the loss, but a check for $1,000.00 or $2,000.00 brings peace of mind during the period of adjustment. Added cash benefits: Choose Coverage for Children (with or without Maternity Benefits) and all your dependent, unmarried children from ages one month through 18 years will be covered, too! Presidential pays up to $6,240.00, at the rate of $60.00 a week, when your youngster is hospitalized... for tonsillitis, appendicitis or any other illness or injury. Yes, you will receive $60.00 a week cash, week after week while the child is in the hospital, even for as many as 104 weeks!

We pay your premiums when you are not able.

As a special consideration to you, if you—the person to whom the basic policy is issued—are hospitalized just 8 weeks or more, all premiums for you and all Covered Members that come due while you are still in the hospital after this period will be paid by Presidential. And your protection continues as if you were paying the premiums yourself! Then if you leave the hospital and must return for the same condition before you have resumed full normal activities for 180 days, Presidential will again PAY ANY PREMIUMS WHILE YOU ARE IN THE HOSPITAL—TO A MAXIMUM OF 2 YEARS—for the total confinement! This means you pay no premiums, yet your full protection remains in force—you collect a maximum of $10,400.00 for the confinement!

THIS LIMITED ENROLLMENT OFFER ENDS SOON

Only 25¢ for First Month—Money-Back Guarantee. You can now have your first month's protection for your entire family for only twenty-five cents! But you must act immediately. Your request for this wonderful Extra Cash Hospital Plan must be mailed on the convenient Enrollment-Application NOT LATER THAN MIDNIGHT of the date shown.

This midnight expiration hour cannot be extended. If your enrollment form is mailed later, it cannot be accepted.

These are the ONLY exclusions!

Your Presidential policy covers every conceivable kind of sickness or accident except conditions caused by war or any act of war; any mental disease or disorder; where care is in a U.S. Government hospital; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and expenses resulting from any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your policy... during the first 2 years only.

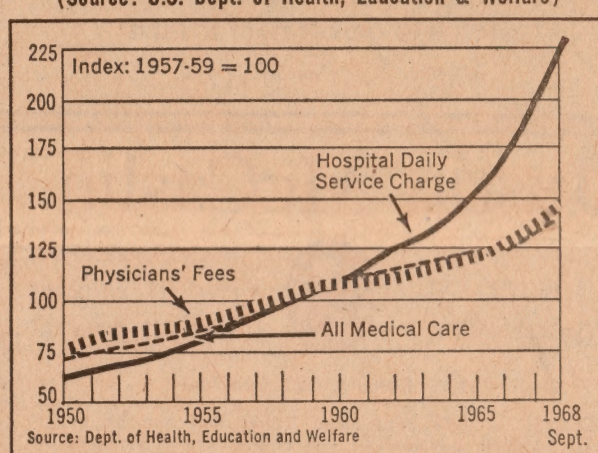

This last item is a real help if you already have a health problem. If you are sick before you take out this policy, you will even be covered for that condition after the policy has been in effect for 2 years. Meanwhile, of course, every new condition is covered immediately!

How can 25¢ buy so much?

You can buy ordinary insurance at any time and pay the regular rates, if you wish. But Presidential can now provide you and your entire family with tax-free Extra Cash Protection for just 25¢ the first month. Only because we enroll a large number of people at one time—directly by mail! This highly efficient "Mass Enrollment" method cuts costs to the bone—and the savings are passed on to you!

Medical Costs Skyrocketing!

(Source: U.S. Dept. of Health, Education & Welfare)

The New York Times, Jan. 6, 1969

Govt. figures reveal your present health protection... may no longer protect you against today's rising medical costs! Don't leave your loved ones defenseless! Act at once to add coverage that provides to a maximum of $10,400.00 health protection for only 25¢ for the first month for entire family.

Make your decision carefully.

Think how costly a hospital confinement will be. Imagine paying for those indispensable doctor, surgical and nursing services that are not covered by your present insurance. Would you be able to afford the quiet and privacy of a private room and a private nurse, should you so desire? Or a telephone to keep in touch with loved ones? Or the rental of a TV set to help pass the lonely hours? Who would pay your bills that keep on coming in at home? Many folks have lost their life savings, their cars, even their homes trying to meet such expenses. And no one knows whose turn it will be next.

Why you must act before the date shown on your Enrollment-Application—just a few days from today. Why do we give you so little time to apply for your insurance policy—only a few days? Because we must receive your Enrollment-Application the same time as all the others in order to pass on to you the savings that come from processing many policies at one time.

We mail you the policy as soon as we receive your enrollment form. When the policy arrives, examine it in the privacy of your own home. Take all the time you need. It's a very short document, and you'll be pleasantly surprised to discover there is NO FINE PRINT. Then—show it, if you wish, to someone you trust. Perhaps your lawyer, accountant, or doctor. Better still—show it to your own insurance man... even though he may very well be working for another company! If he is a personal friend, he has your best interests in mind. So you can believe him when he tells you there is no better bargain available anywhere—at any price!

Money-back guarantee—in case you change your mind.

Even after you mail your Enrollment-Application below... even after you examine the policy in your own home and talk it over with anyone you wish... even after all this you are still free to return the policy within 15 days and your quarter will be refunded at once. There will be no obligation whatever.

Meanwhile, all during the 15 days you are making up your mind—you'll be protected by $100.00-A-WEEK extra cash benefits just as if you had already said "yes." That's right, you will be covered all this time for any accident or illness which puts you in the hospital, even if you finally decide to return the policy.

However, after you've seen the policy for yourself, you will surely agree that this is a tremendous value and you'll want to continue this $100.00-A-WEEK extra cash protection.

HERE ARE THE WONDERFUL LOW RATES

The following rate chart shows how little it costs after the first month to cover yourself, your spouse, and any adult dependents. Each person must be 16 years old or over, and pays (per person) the rate shown for his or her age.

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium
16-44	only $3.45
45-49	only $3.95
50-54	only $4.45
55-59	only $4.95
60-69	only $5.95
70-74	only $6.95
75 and over	only $8.95

Only $2 more covers all your dependent, unmarried children.

... from the ages of one month through 18 years. And then, if you wish, just add $1 more to that, and you're covered for maternity benefits, too! Newborn children are covered automatically at the age of one month—at no additional cost!

NOTE: The regular Monthly Premium shown here (for age at time of enrollment) is the same low premium you will continue to pay, if you do not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next! Once you have enrolled in this Presidential plan, your rate can never be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us—or because of advanced age—but only if there is a general rate adjustment, up or down, on all policies of this type in your entire state!

THESE 19 QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Tell you how Presidential's EXTRA CASH HOSPITAL PLAN gives you the protection you need—at amazingly low cost!

- How much will my policy pay me when I go to the hospital? $100.00 per week—to the full maximum of $10,400.00 cash. (If you're over 65, you collect to a maximum of $10,010.00 cash benefits on top of any Medicare benefits. $70.00 a week for first 13 weeks, and $100.00 weekly while you remain continuously hospitalized afterwards, for a maximum of 91 additional weeks.) You collect cash not just for yourself, but for all covered members of your family when they are hospitalized! And you collect cash even if you're in the hospital for only one day!
- When do I collect $2,000.00 extra cash for accidents? We pay you $1,000.00 extra cash for complete accidental loss of one hand or one foot or sight of one eye, and $2,000.00 extra cash for loss of both hands or both feet or sight of both eyes—even if the loss occurs as long as 3 months after the accident.
- What if I am hospitalized by the same illness—again? You still collect your $100.00-a-week extra cash to the full maximum of $10,400.00. You need only to have resumed full normal activities for just 180 days—then if you are hospitalized for the same illness you begin to collect all over again.
- If I receive more money than my total medical bills—do I keep the "extra cash"? You certainly do! We always pay the full $100.00 a week—all the way to the maximum of $10,400.00 cash. And even if your bills add up to just part of that amount, you still keep every dollar of the extra cash—tax-free! That's why this policy's called an extra cash plan. It's perfectly possible under this plan for you to come out of the hospital with extra dollars you can use for bills, rent, or anything else. And if you already have some health or hospital insurance—all the better for you. Because we pay you anyway, on top of what they pay you! On top of Blue Cross, Major Medical, Workmen's Compensation, or whatever insurance policies you have with other companies!
- Do you pay me cash even for my children, too? And... for my "future" children? Yes! You collect $100.00-a-week cash anytime your child goes to the hospital, when Coverage for Children is added to the basic plan. A maximum of $6,240.00 each time a dependent, unmarried child (ages 1 month through 18 years old) is in the hospital for sickness or injury. And if you have a growing family—as soon as your newborn child's one month old, he too is covered—automatically... at no additional cost to you.
- Will you pay me $100.00-a-week cash—even for Pregnancy? Yes! Many health plans don't cover pregnancy. But we do, when Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits is added to the basic plan. You collect $100.00-a-week cash for pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage that results in a hospital stay. (Both parents have to be enrolled in this plan for entire pregnancy period.)
- Are there times I might collect as much as $20,800.00... as much as $41,600.00? There are! Remember, we pay cash not just for you, but for every covered member of your family. So if you and your spouse are hospitalized more than once... or even both of you more than once... or if a child gets sick or has an accident—you could end up collecting $20,800.00 or more! And that's not the whole story. Presidential gives policyowners an EXTRAORDINARY DOUBLE-CASH BENEFIT. If you and your covered spouse are both in an accident and go to the hospital at the same time, Presidential pays you $400.00-a-week tax free cash. This amount is paid for as long as both of you remain in the hospital. Even for 2 years! You receive up to a maximum of $41,600.00—to pay for doctor and hospital bills and other expenses resulting from one accident alone! We hope illnesses and accidents don't strike your home—but should something happen, isn't it reassuring to know you're so well protected?
- Can I spend my cash benefits any way I please? Yes! Spend the money any way you choose. Use it to pay your hospital, doctor, and nursing bills. Use it to pay for rent, food, clothing. Or put it in the bank to replace the savings spent during your hospitalization. All cash comes straight to you (not to doctor or hospital unless you request it) so you alone decide how it is to be spent!
- Must I pay taxes on the money you send me? Certainly NOT! Every dollar we send you is 100% tax-free.
- Am I ever allowed to stop paying premiums during a long stay in the hospital—yet still remain fully covered? Yes, you are! All premiums that come due after you—the person to whom the basic policy is issued—are in the hospital just 8 weeks or more... do not have to be paid! Yes, even if you are in for months, a year, or longer! We pay all premiums for you, and for all covered members of your family, too, while you remain hospitalized. You aren't expected to pay us back either.
- How can you give me so much—for so little? Because you buy your policy directly from the company. You don't deal through middlemen. You eliminate costly processing charges and "red tape" that are imposed as provided under the insurance. That's the reason why Presidential can provide you with exceptional high-savings health insurance protection, including a full month's coverage for your family for only 25¢!
- How do I go about submitting a claim? We invite you to contact CASH BENEFITS HEADQUARTERS direct. Whether you want to submit a claim, or just ask us a question, don't hesitate to contact us. As a Presidential policyowner, you are entitled to prompt, courteous and direct attention at all times... and you will get it.
- Because Presidential costs less... do I get less protection? Absolutely not! You get more! $100.00 weekly cash payments for a maximum of 2 years for each hospital stay. And that goes for all covered members of your family. Yet all you pay to put this policy in force for one month is... 25¢. And if you want, continue this protection afterwards at the regular low Presidential rate! That's why we urge you—for your own satisfaction—to compare these big cash benefits with any comparable policy issued by any other insurance company... anywhere.
- Now tell me what's the "catch"—what doesn't my policy cover? Get ready for a welcome surprise. Your policy covers everything except conditions caused by (a) war or act of war; (b) mental disease or disorder; (c) where care is in a U.S. Government hospital; (d) pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and (e) any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your policy—but even this last "exclusion" is done away with after you've been a policyowner for only two years. Everything else is definitely covered.
- Will you cancel my policy if I make too many claims? Or because of age? No—positively not! Only you can cancel. The company cannot—no matter how many claims you have or how old you get or for any other reason whatsoever. A GUARANTEED-RENEWABLE-FOR-LIFE clause has been written into your policy.
- If I'm hospitalized less than a week—do you still pay in full? Yes! We pay you every day you're in the hospital. There's no "waiting period" before you start collecting.
- What are the requirements to enroll in this Extra Cash Hospital Plan? You must not have been refused or had cancelled any health, hospital or life insurance due to reasons of health; and, to qualify during this enrollment period, you must enroll before midnight of the date shown in the Enrollment-Application.
- Besides saving money—are there any other advantages of joining Presidential during the enrollment period? Yes. A very important one is that you don't need to complete a regular application—just the brief enrollment form in the corner of this page. Also, during this enrollment period there are no extra requirements for eligibility, and no "savers" or restrictive endorsements can be put on your policy!
- How do I enroll? Fill out the brief Enrollment-Application and mail it with just 25¢ for the first month's protection for your entire family. Mail to: The Presidential Life Insurance Company of America, Direct Mail Division, 11401 Roosevelt Blvd., Philadelphia, Pa. 19154.

Get your Enrollment-Application into the mail today—because once you suffer an accident or sickness, it's TOO LATE to buy protection at any cost. That's why we urge you to act today—before anything unexpected happens.
